EAST CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
ACTIVITY FUND

Cardinal '72

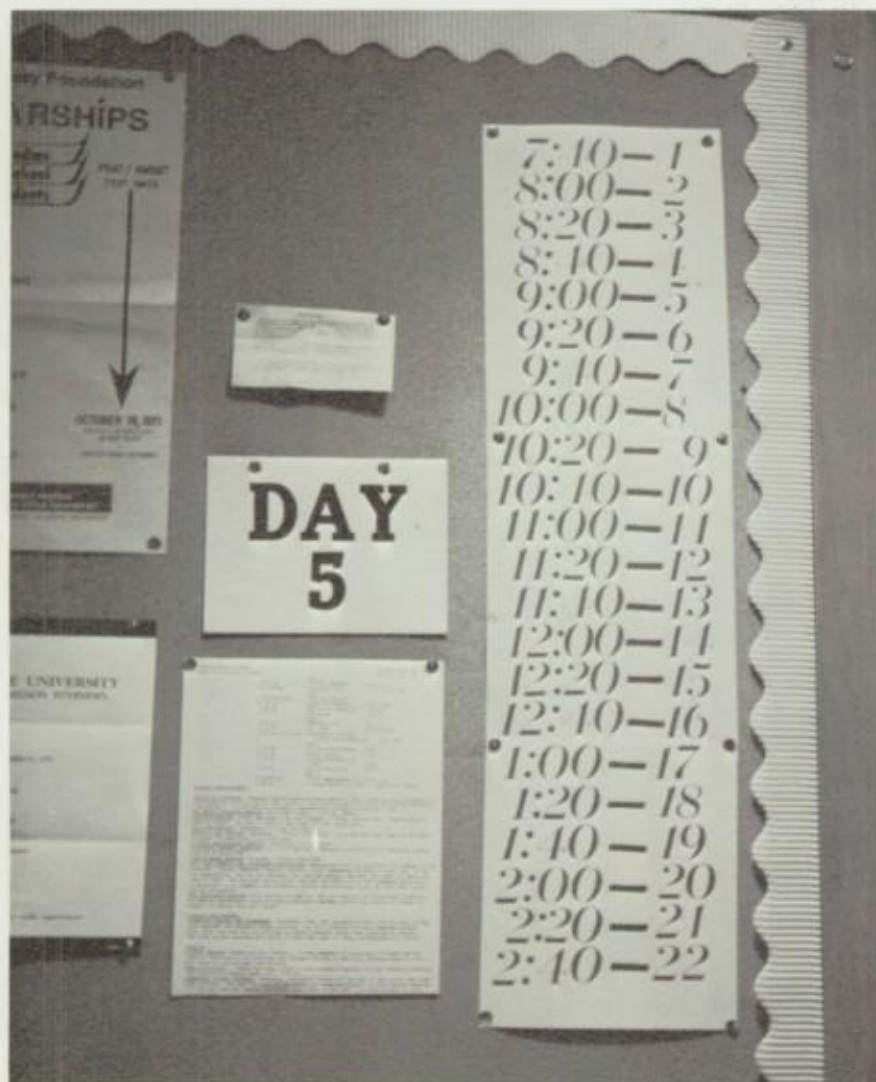

Positive action is the word for our year, 1971-1972. It was a year for doing new innovative things, for testing new ideas. East Central was the hub of things to come, a trial which proved to be a great success. The computers figured out our schedules and we began them earlier, 7:40 a.m. We were treated like individuals and special devices were set up for our special needs. It wasn't all fun and games but it was a beginning, a gigantic experiment in which we students made the final conclusions.

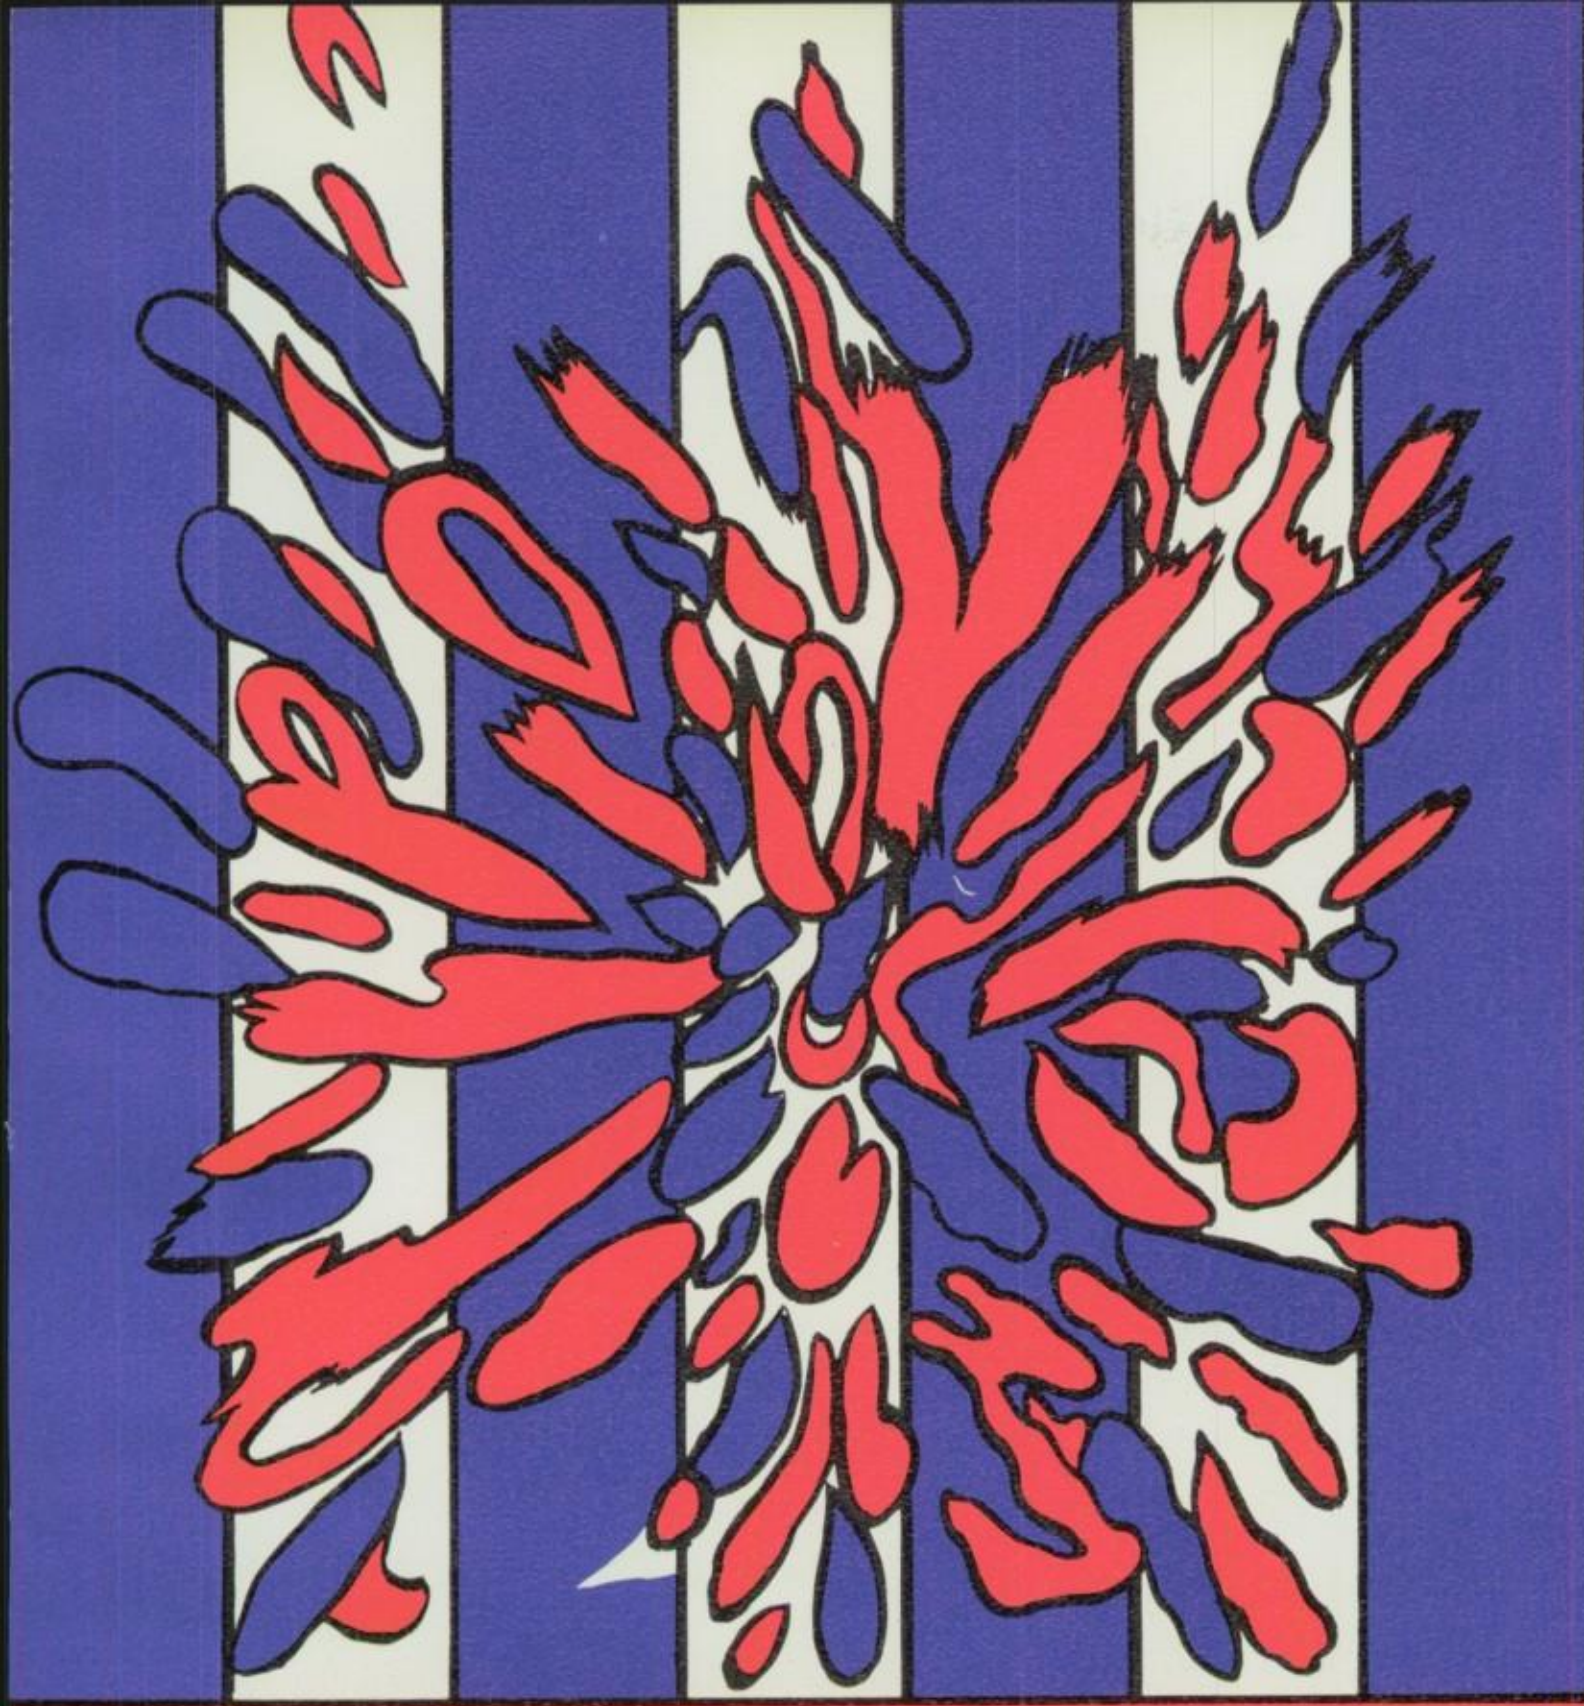

Tradition kept E.C. spirit soaring. We had the new phrases like "Meet you at the resource center mods 2 and 3" but familiar sounds like "v-i-c-t-o-r-y, that's the Cardinal," and "That food in the cafeteria is enough to . . ." were just as common. Sophomores still fell down stairs, dropped lunch trays and got lost. Hitting people for money kept juniors preoccupied. And Seniors got senioritis but graduated anyway. It was a year mixed with tradition and uniqueness. It was a mod, mod, mod, mod world.

DEPICT

SENIORS 1972!!

Class Officers

President Roger Long
 Vice President Cindy Lott
 Sec-Treas. Peggy Gum

"You can't win them all" proves to be Senior, Gary Taylor's plight.

Thirteen years of service to East Central students are accredited to Mr. O. D. Bell, senior class sponsor. He had led the Senior Board, the governing body of the senior class, in numerous activities during the year such as the Senior Class Play, the selling of senior pins, pictures, and announcements; and measurement of caps and gowns. The representatives from the senior homerooms have made arrangements for the senior prom to be at the Crystal Ballroom, on May 6 and for a commencement speaker.

Mr. O. D. Bell returned to serve as class sponsor.

This year's Senior Board flies higher than ever with plans for a great year.

Jerry Said What We Will be Saying.

With May arrives the time to reflect on the years past and what is to come in the future. Jerry Jones is happy with the thought of leaving while Debbie Cline looks tearful. Both express the varied emotions which all seniors feel upon leaving East Central-old friends-and the years of being dependent on our parents. Now will be a time of transition. There will be many new experiences to go through such as college or work and for some, marriage. The greatest impact is yet to come!

 Vice-Pres. Tracy Hendricks
 Secretary Sandy Center
 Treasurer LaRaye Broesder

E nthusiasm was the word used to describe this year's Junior Class. Headed by the efficiency of the class officers and under the leadership of sponsor, Mr. Luther Younger, they carried out many activities displaying their ability of hard work and concern for their class. Providing the initiative behind this effort is the point system by which any Junior may work for his class and receive a number of points with credit toward the purchase of his Senior Prom ticket.

The Junior class sponsored the Mr. Bird Legs Contest as usual this year. A special committee from Junior Board chose three Sophs, three Juniors, and three Seniors for the contest based on school spirit and sportsmanship. The entire student body voted for one week at a penny a vote. Juniors attended the voting up until the height of the contest; the pep assembly when the contestants were introduced, James Ledbetter, Glen Bedingfield, Jim Bennett, Kerry Irwin, Randy Smith, Jeff Stokes, Tim Riggs, Pat Franklin, and Tom Hamilton. The winner, Pat Franklin, was honored with a giant drumstick and a loud round of applause.

Rings and Things Keep Jrs. Going

Bird legs. . .class rings. . .basketball concessions. . .yearbook covers. . .looking forward to senior year, all of these remind us of the junior class. Yearbook covers were forty cents for those cards who wanted to preserve their yearbook for many years to come. Popcorn, Pepsis, and Paydays were only a few of the items found in the junior class' basketball concessions where loyal juniors scraped up the popcorn and poured the pop to help earn points toward their senior prom tickets and to make a few extra dollars for their class.

SOPHS 72

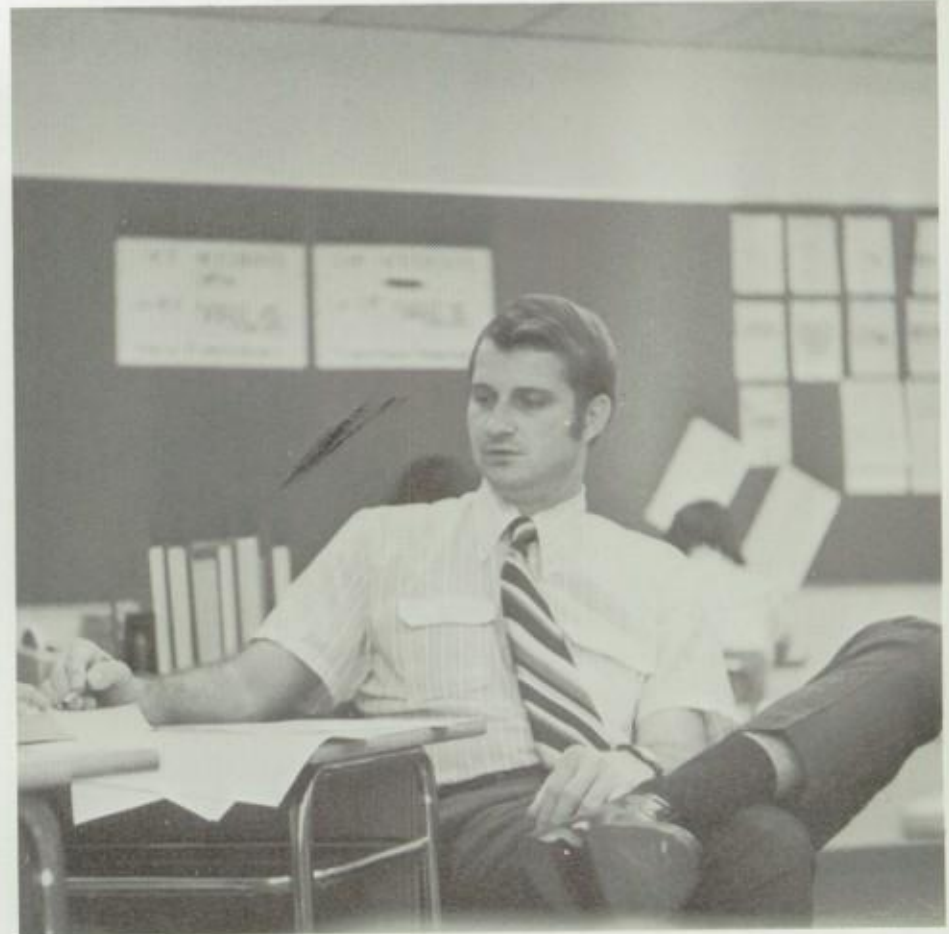

President Mike Barker
 Vice-President Deril Lees
 Sec.-Treas. Kaylyn Carpenter

Sophomore leadership potential was quite evident in this year's class officers.

Sophomores find the Resource Centers very helpful when writing a paper.

A great aid to incoming sophomores is Mr. Rodger Lefler, class sponsor.

The Sophomore Board is formed by one representative from each sophomore homeroom. This group is the executive board of the class and makes all vital decisions for their class. One of the class money-making projects is the sale of stadium cushions, at a price of $2.00 each. Another project is the sale of concessions at all home wrestling matches. Most of this money is used to cover expenses of the sophomore class, such as the class play. The sophomore indoctrination to modular scheduling was done in the homerooms. "The biggest problem," says sponsor, Mr. Lefler, "is accepting the responsibility of unscheduled time."

Feliz Navidad is Rosa Harper's wish to everyone in the world.

A candid shot: Cliff Richardson.

The Sophomore class is the largest at East Central this year with 665 members. They displayed their spirit early in the year when they elected Patricia Morgan as Sophomore Attendant. They also elected their class officers for the year, and what a good job they did. Their enthusiasm communicated itself to the rest of the class, and they showed their spirit by an overwhelming attendance at all athletic events. They also sold stadium cushions to earn money for their Senior Prom in 1974. With their spirit, they should have a great three years.

Red Cross's primary goal this year was to assist people to help themselves. This kind of spirit was seen in the collection of Christmas stockings which were stuffed and distributed to area hospitals and orphanages during the Holidays. Red Cross also got involved in the Neighbor for Neighbor program by sponsoring a canned food drive in Jan. In Feb., a clothing drive was held. The Red Cross enrollment drive was a turtle race with homerooms competing against one another.

Medical Club Examines Health Careers

Medical Club officers and sponsors enjoy browsing through a pharmacy.

The Medical Club consists of students interested in a health career. The purpose of the club is to help the students further their understanding and interest in the field of their choice. The officers, Peggy Gum, Ray Chavez, Cindy Wood, Jim Busenbark and Dennis Larsen, and sponsors, Myrtle Roller-son and Irene Bennett, led the club through an active year. Fund raising projects, speakers, conventions and volunteer work are some of the various activities that keep members busy and involved.

Members of the medical club are the following: Debbie Larsen, Peggy Gum, Nicole Wright, LuAnn Green, Sharon Kaminski, Teresa Hopper, Terry Patterson, Carmen Fuentealba, Anna Anguire, Jim Busenbark, Karyl Ringeisen.

Math Club Activities Stimulate Interest

The major purpose of Mu Alpha Theta is to stimulate a deeper and more effective interest in mathematics. Playing chess, discussing math problems, and making preparations for taking the National Math Test are some of the activities of Mu Alpha Theta. The officers of the club include Mike Flory, president; Jerry Jones, vice-president; Nicole Wright, secretary. The sponsors, Mr. Peck and Mrs. Daniels, help prepare club members for future involvement in mathematic fields and challenges.

The East Central German Club has had a "wunderschoen" year under the direction of Sponsor "Herr" Ken Schulte. German Club was organized to acquaint students with the German language, the people, customs, arts and literature of Germany and German-speaking countries. One of its activities this year was a caroling party which entertained several nursing homes with German Christmas carols. Rounding out the school year was the club's spring picnic which was held at a Tulsa park.

"Le Cercle Français" Entertains Patients

East Central's French Club, "Le Cercle Français", tries to further the students' knowledge of the French language, and culture. The club sponsor is Miss Suzanne Pharr, who conducts the meetings with such exciting activities as entertaining children in a North Tulsa hospital by singing some French songs, viewing a French movie and a Christmas party. French club is opened to all students now enrolled in a French course at East Central. This club gives students a chance to use French, by conducting the meetings in French.

Bonjour!

In the above picture, on the left are the officers of French Club. Left to right is Debbie Allen, second vice-president; Jolene Foley, president and Teresa McHugh, Sec.-Treasurer. Not shown is Daryl Gable, first vice-president. The lower picture on the left shows the activities of a recent French Club meeting. The purpose of el Circulo Espanol is to give the students who are interested in Spanish a firsthand experience with the foods, people, and customs of various countries. The two big events of the year are the Christmas Pinata Party and in May, the annual Mexican Dinner. This year East Central had two Spanish guests Carmen Fuentealba from Chile and Ricardo Maruffo from Mexico. They brought the ways of the Spanish people closer to students of E.C. as they illustrated the ways of the Spanish people, and their customs.

¡Hola!

Journalism Proves An Exciting Challenge

Cut the 'you' out of that editorial! . . . What do you mean you couldn't find him — don't you know it's deadline?" Journalism students bear an impact of responsibility to the school which is seldom realized by the student body. Paced this year by Editor Jana Hutchens, the 15-member staff covered Cardinal happenings into School Life from sports to features to news. Kevin Chambers served as photographer and representative to the nine-school Editorial Board at the Education Service Center.

'72 Cardinal Presents A Challenge

The staff broke out in joyous exultation as final deadlines were met.

Secret agent, Roger Stokes, hijacks the yearbook to journalism class.

The yearbook staff, under the direction of Jan Armstrong, was busier than ever this year with a record number of pages. Cropping pictures, drawing lay-outs, writing copy and cut-lines and photography sessions are just a few of the many activities involved in assembling a yearbook. The Senior Staff headed the various divisions of the yearbook and was assisted by junior members. Compiling a yearbook that represented the students and spirit of East Central was a challenging job.

Yearbook staffers show that all work and no play just isn't their thing.

Catalinas Say, "It's About Time."

The spectacular finale to the annual Catalina swim show is performed by Tom Muckenthaler and Debi Daniels.

Catalinas is a club organized for girls who like to spend most of their time in the pool. Each member must be skilled in swimming ability and be willing to work hard hours from September until March, practicing for their annual swim show. The Catalinas theme for their show was, "It's About Time." This year a solo, performed by Tom Muckenthaler who is on the boys swimming team and Debbie Daniels was very successful. All seventy members work together with their ideas to maintain a good show, with sponsor Pat Holder.

Catalina officers are: Cathie Jones, Jana Hutchens, Shelli Roach, Jennifer Salyers, respectively.

First Row: Melodie Freeman, Debi Daniels, Cathie Jones, Shelli Roach, Jennifer Salyers, Debi Cline, Carolyn Green. Attired in the loyal red and white, this year's Pep Club cheered on the Fighting Cards. To help brighten up those cold wintry games they sold red and white striped mufflers, caps, and mittens. They also decorated our school halls and buses going to the games, sold spirit ribbons, sponsored the Howdy Dance, and even baked football shaped cookies for the players. The Pep Club is responsible for electing and training the school mascot. The honor goes to Jim Busenbark who served as the E.C. Cardinal. This year's club sponsor is Miss Susan Jones.

Band V.I.P.'S Strike Up Cardinal Spirit

Larry and Deril exhibit the form and style needed of successful drum majors.

East Central band majors and majorettes work diligently to prepare for a busy year. They execute exciting performances at school pep assemblies, football half-time ceremonies, and local parades. Majorettes, Patty Ehlen, Paula Henson, Mary Pat Hardy, Sherry Rickner and Cathy Lewis are led by Jolene Foley. Their routines include the use of hoops, sabers and fire batons. Larry and Deril Lees as drum majors, provide spirited leadership for the capable and industrious East Central band.

The E. C. band captures the attention of on-lookers during a parade routine.

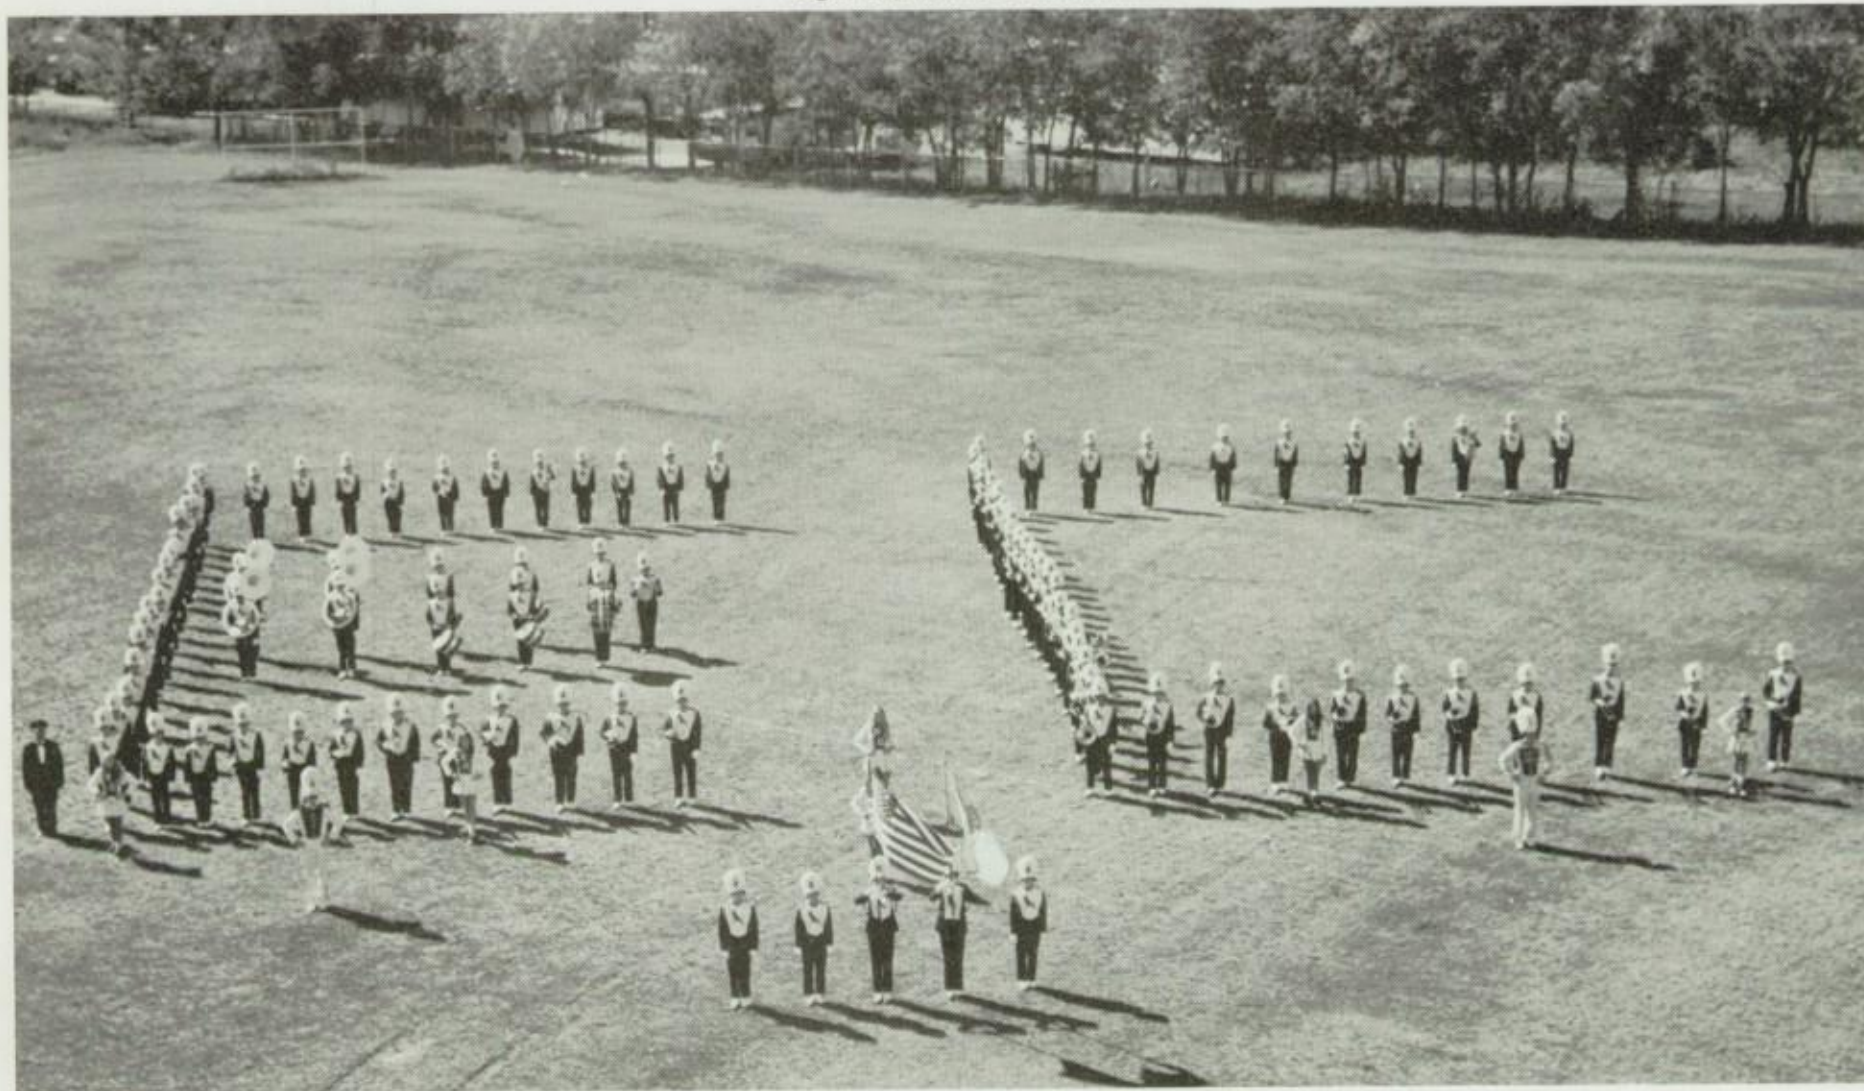

Spirit Roared At East Central

This year E. C. had plenty of reasons to be proud of its marching and concert bands. In November the band picked up a second place trophy and the majorettes a first place at the Band Day parade in Tahlequah. In December, the Concert Band and Orchestra got students into the Christmas spirit with the annual Christmas Concert and, in May, introduced them into spring with the Spring Concert. Ending another school year, the bands hope for a good rating in district and state contests.

Mr. Kelliher takes time to help eager sophomore band members.

The marching band shows off the E.C. that ends each half-time show.

A Candid Shot: Mrs. Erbert

The Choral Department began another year of musical development by attending the Music Festival at Stillwater. The program was under the direction of Jester Harrison. To raise money for this trip and others, choral members sold grapefruit and oranges by the truckload. At Christmas E.C. choral students participated in the All-City presentation of the Messiah. Midge Allison won the honor of singing a solo in this presentation. The Choral Department has many spring activities. They include tours to nearby junior-highs to present programs in connection with the band, a talent show that allows choral members to show their versatility, and district and state competition which provides a comparison of East Central's Choral Department with other schools. The year will end with the chorus singing at vesper services.

Concert Chorus. First Row: Cynthia Woolever, Kaylyn Carpenter, Patti Flanagan, Mary Sly, Robbi Kimball, Janet Wilson, Midge Allison, Laura Jones, LaRaye Broesder, Mrs. Erbert. The Board Encouraged . . .

Modular Scheduling: the words which may become a byword in the future course of many schools, was strongly encouraged by Tulsa's eight-member Board of Education. Headed by Dr. Gordon Cawelti, Superintendent of Schools, the Board is deeply involved with vital decisions concerning new curriculum, school integration policies, school budgets, and reports concerning progress, problems, and needs of schools. Board members include: Dr. Gordon Cawelti, Superintendent; Mr. Robert J. Riggs, Jr., President; Mr. Eugene H. Harris, Vice-President; Mr. Carl D. Hall, Jr.; Mr. Robert A. Beckstrom; Mrs. Opal Carlsson; Mrs. Richard Warner; and Mr. Ray Conard, all outstanding Tulsans.

The Principal Dared . . .

Mr. J. W. Payne
Principal of East Central

"A pupil who learns how to learn is best prepared for life in these changing times," stated Mr. J. W. Payne, Principal, when asked about the innermost philosophy of Modular Scheduling. He explained East Central's premise as follows: Every pupil is a unique person who has his own ability, interests, future goals, and rate of learning. To survive in and contribute to the modern, democratic society, he must be able to retain his individuality, yet be able to work and play well with others to solve his personal problems and to achieve his personal aims. A wide variety of learning activities must be employed: listening, speaking, acting, writing, reporting, creating, and investigating. Similarly, teachers are usually forced to play many roles: lecturer, discussion leader, resource person, counselor, organizer, disciplinarian, and stimulator. The building, the facilities, and materials must likewise be adaptable to the wide spectrum of learning activities that are necessary. "I trust East Central's Modular Scheduling permits us to do this to the individual student's advantage," said Mr. Payne, in a bold move to the future.

"I even had to copy my schedule," comments Mr. Payne.

The men who taught Cardinal teachers: Mr. Payne discusses "flexibility" with Mr. Scott Richardson of the E.S.C.

His Assistants Hoped . . .

Mr. George Dorsch
Assistant Principal

Mr. Jim Quetone
Assistant Principal

"Our first year's objective was the scheduling-getting it down and learning to make it work," reflected Mr. Jim Quetone, Assistant Superintendent, referring to the technical operation of Modular Scheduling. Mr. Quetone, in charge of school activities, and Assistant Principal George Dorsch, in charge of curriculum, helped form the schedule last spring as each subject department requested various time patterns, which in turn were coded into the computer to arrange cycles by mods and days. They also had to take into consideration the state of Oklahoma requirements for attendance in class and total minutes for accreditation. There were many problems to solve: scheduling assemblies and school organizational meetings, and adjustment to the early starting time.

Key men to the function of the building and activities and curriculum are Mr. Bob Sneed, Head Custodian, Mr. Jim Quetone, Assistant Principal, Mr. Bill Stephens, Academic Counselor.

A sense of humor helps! Mr. Dorsch and Selma Beair work on attendance and records.

"Helping the individual student make a transition from total dependence on teachers and the school system to a role of self-dependence and responsibility was the counselors' biggest job this year," said Mrs. Opal Lloyd. She and Mr. Larry Smith worked primarily with students in decision-making, patterns of study, and attendance, while Mr. Bill Stephens and Mr. Jerry Zachary hand-scheduled students by individual mods and helped them with college and vocational planning. School Nurse Mrs. Irene Bennett expanded her duties further this year by presenting more lecture material in the areas of general health and communicable diseases. Mr. Doshie Loyd, Librarian, extended her duties to individualized instruction, as more students than ever before attended the library on their unscheduled time for source material and an exchange of ideas.

Art: The New Look

"I get to know my students personally, and this is the best thing about Modular Scheduling," said Mrs. Janey Harrison, Chairman of East Central's Art Department. In addition to regular classes, students are hand-scheduled two to four mods extra per week, which is ideal because they have time to work on their projects. New to the department this year is Miss Linda Lohner, who was graduated from the University of Tulsa with a Bachelor of Fine Arts, K-12 Certification. Team teaching is used for large groups in Art History and Basic Art, with the balance of the Art curriculum set up on an individual lab basis. The Art Activities class contributed school-wide by making posters, play covers, and prom decorations.

Music: The New Role

Traditionally the success of music departments has been dependent upon group practice and performance at regularly scheduled intervals. Since Modular Scheduling does not lend itself readily to this concept, students at East Central have had to readjust both their philosophies and expectations of their roles in the field of music. Returning Directors Mrs. Virginia Erbert of vocal music, and Mr. Dennis Kelliher, instrumental music, have given stability during this period of transition. They utilized small groups to the advantage of soloists and sectional rehearsals and large groups for performance outlets and performance tests. Marching Band started its day at seven in the morning, earlier than ever before.

Business Education:

The Business Education Department moved into Modular Scheduling with seven teachers this year. Mrs. Oleata Bohall, who taught business courses at Washington for the past three years, returned to East Central where she originally began her teaching career. Mrs. Bohall received a B.A. in Business Education from the University of Tulsa and an M.S. in Business Education from Oklahoma State University. Other teachers include Mrs. Jean Cagle, Notehand and Business, Mr. Rodger Lefler, Bookkeeping-Business, Mrs. Esther Lowery, Shorthand and Transcription, Mrs. Ernestine Pierce, Office Machines, Mrs. Valdene Sands, Bookkeeping and Business, and Miss Luberta Waters, General Office Education and Typing.

Mrs. Valdene Sands finds a lot of paper work in common with Mrs. Jan White. That could also be said for Mrs. Cagle and service assistant Teresa McHugh.

A New Approach

Mrs. Lowery and Gretchen Beesley

"Modular Scheduling gives an opportunity for our students to spend more time on office skills in which they are most interested," emphasized Mrs. Ernestine Pierce, Chairman of the Business Education Department. Open labs were maintained in typing, office machines, and general office education to carry out the departmental goal of providing students with knowledge and training which will enable them to enter and contribute to the business world. Also, college-bound students get a sound foundation in the academic field of business. Bookkeeping and Basic Business were taught by faculty teams. Small group activities included drills and workbooks, with large groups offering films and guest speakers.

English:

Four new teachers and a new department chairman, Mrs. Buelah Garrett, marked the biggest change in the English Department this year. Mrs. Suzanne Decker, who teaches a split assignment of English-Social Studies, was graduated from the University of Tulsa with a B.S. degree. Mrs. Ruth Hatton, American Lit., who formerly taught at Will Rogers High School, received a B.A. in Education from Langston University. Mrs. Julia Hope, English Lit., received B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Tulsa. She has also taught at Edison Junior High and Anderson Junior High in Tulsa. Mrs. Norma Davis joined the English Literature department this year, in addition to her duties as speech teacher.

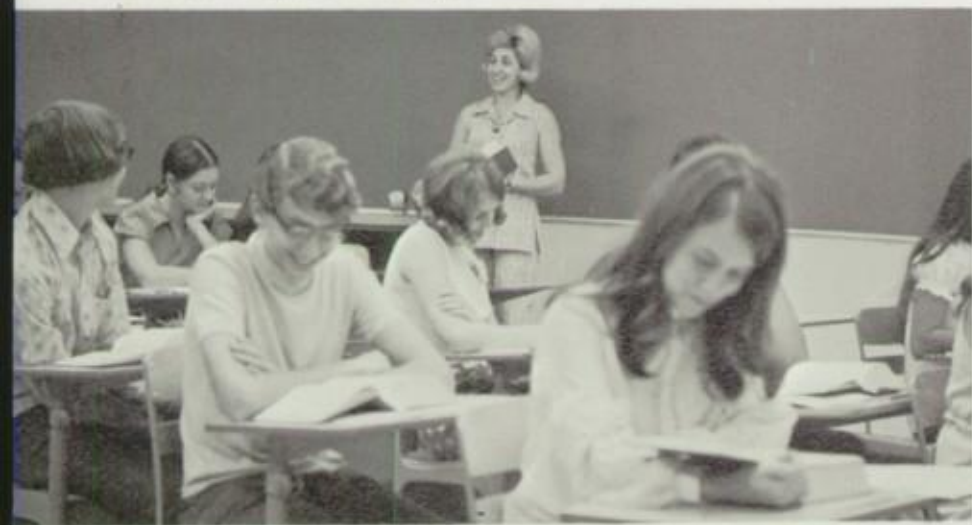

Newly appointed Department Chairman Mrs. Buelah Garrett specializes in poetry. Some of her Elizabethan sonnets, a difficult form to construct whether classic or modern, have been published in professional anthologies.

The New Packets

Alliteration and American Lit go hand in hand when Mrs. Campbell makes it all seem easy to new sophomores.

In our new scheduling, individual responsibility and self-discipline are the keynotes to success; I believe most of our students are accepting this philosophy," stated Mrs. Beulah Garrett, English Department Head, one of the most enthusiastic supporters of Modular Scheduling. Juniors and Seniors are actually experiencing a carry-over from previous years when English students pioneered along the lines of independent study. This year offered wider choices during unscheduled time. The newest innovation to be used in the English department is the modern "learning packet," which gives the student still more direction during both his scheduled and unscheduled time. The department also introduced an English Resource Center and utilized extensive team teaching.

And then there was Hamlet, Juniors, . . . and more eager sophomores . . . as interpreted by Mrs. Rollins and Miss Stuart.

Here, Miss Sue Clabaugh, the exuberant leader of English Lit, relaxes just before another team meeting.

Foreign Language:

With a modified approach to the study of foreign countries, East Central's Foreign Language Department started the year with a new accent on conversation and two new teachers to convey it. Miss Suzanne Pharr, French teacher, was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with B.A. and M.A.T. degrees and received a Certificat in French at the University of Lyon, France. She taught at Wilson and Sanford schools in North Carolina, as well as Carver, Edison, and Rogers in Tulsa. Mr. Ken Schulte was graduated from the University of Oklahoma at Norman with a B.A. degree in German. Mrs. Florence Schupbach and Mrs. Patti Dyer taught Spanish. Mrs. Virginia Erbert also taught French, as well as her vocal music classes.

Doorway to understanding: Mrs. Schupbach believes that communications holds the key to international good will.

"Buenos dias, students, I hope you're in the mood to work today." Mrs. Dyer may not have said it, but she is up to serious business on the chalkboard.

A New Dialog

German: Mr. Schulte and students are deep in books and verb conjugations.

Our Language Panorama

"Instructors agree the small groups offer the best chance to converse we've ever had," commented Mrs. Florence Schupbach, Chairman of the Foreign Language Department. Students agree that speaking a foreign language with ease is what a foreign language study is all about. The new Fine Arts Resource Center provided a place for extra reading of books and magazines, and also a listening room where students could listen to regular tapes, cassettes, and records—additional aids to oral comprehension. The center also accommodated students in home-making, art, drama, and music.

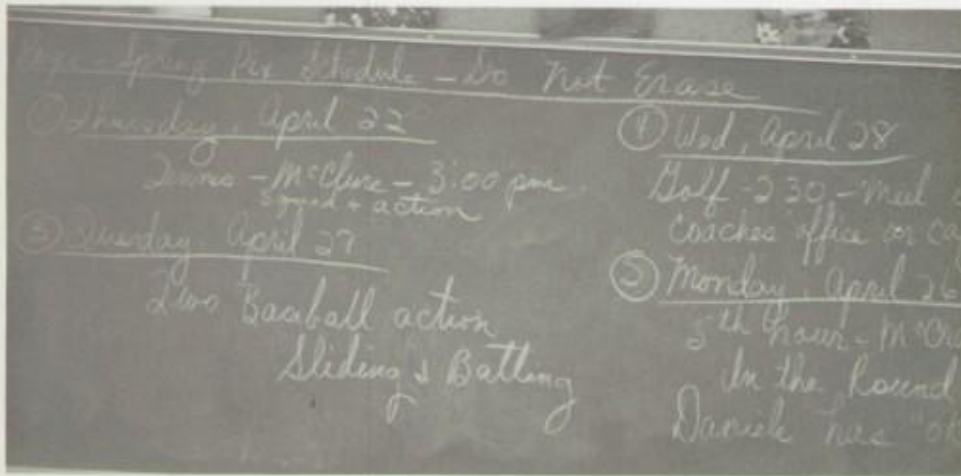

French: Miss Pharr's class concentrates in the language laboratory.

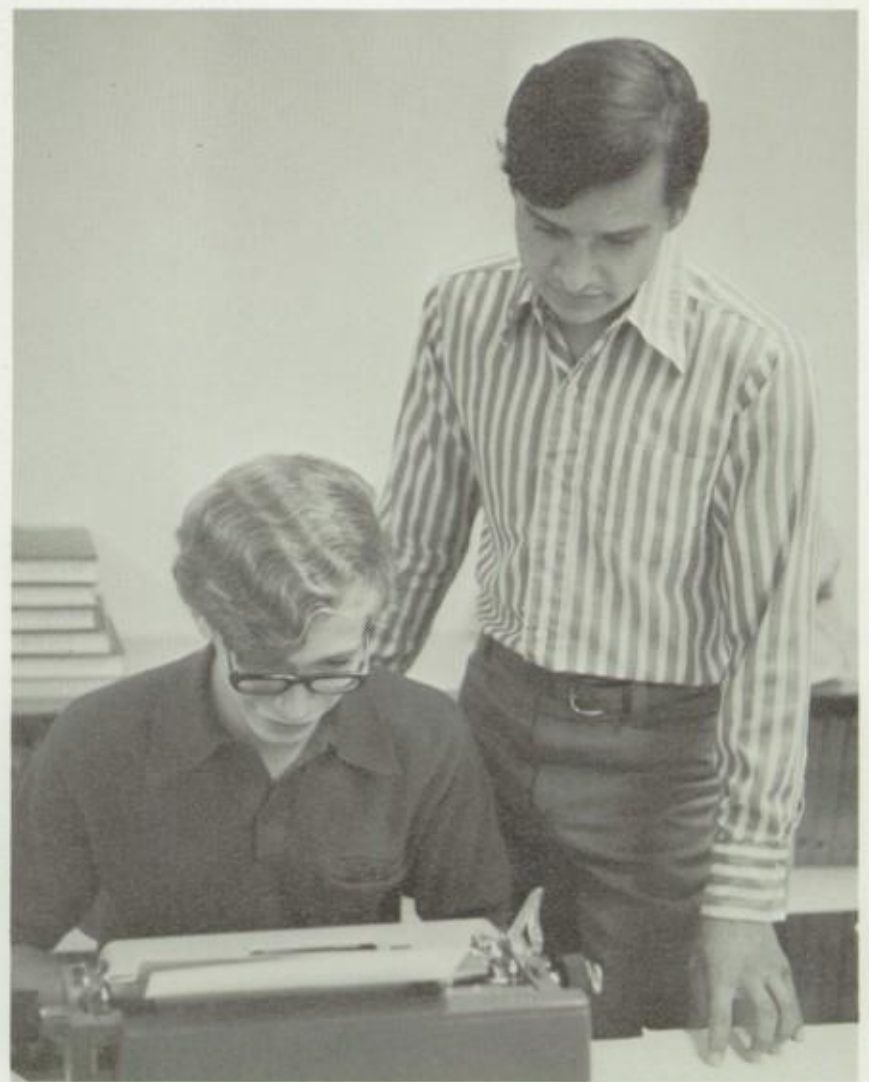

Spanish: Mexico and the big sombrero activate Mrs. Dyer's class.

Journalism: The New Deadlines

As the saying goes, "If we don't do it, it won't get done." Kevin types it, Jana and Mrs. Armstrong approve it.

"Our deadlines seem to roll around faster, but one thing about the new schedule—my future journalists really come forward," commented Mrs. Janet Armstrong, Journalism and Yearbook adviser. Journalism students met but three times a week, twice in a three-mod lab, once in a two-mod theory session. The labs were not long enough or often enough to keep East Central well written up into School Life, so J-students spent several unscheduled hours making Tuesday/Wednesday deadlines. Football stories had to be compiled over the weekend, typed, and into the 11:00 a.m. E.S.C. mail the following Monday. Yearbook staffers met but four times a week; consequently, many a layout was drawn and many a picture cropped during late hours as most Cardinalites slept.

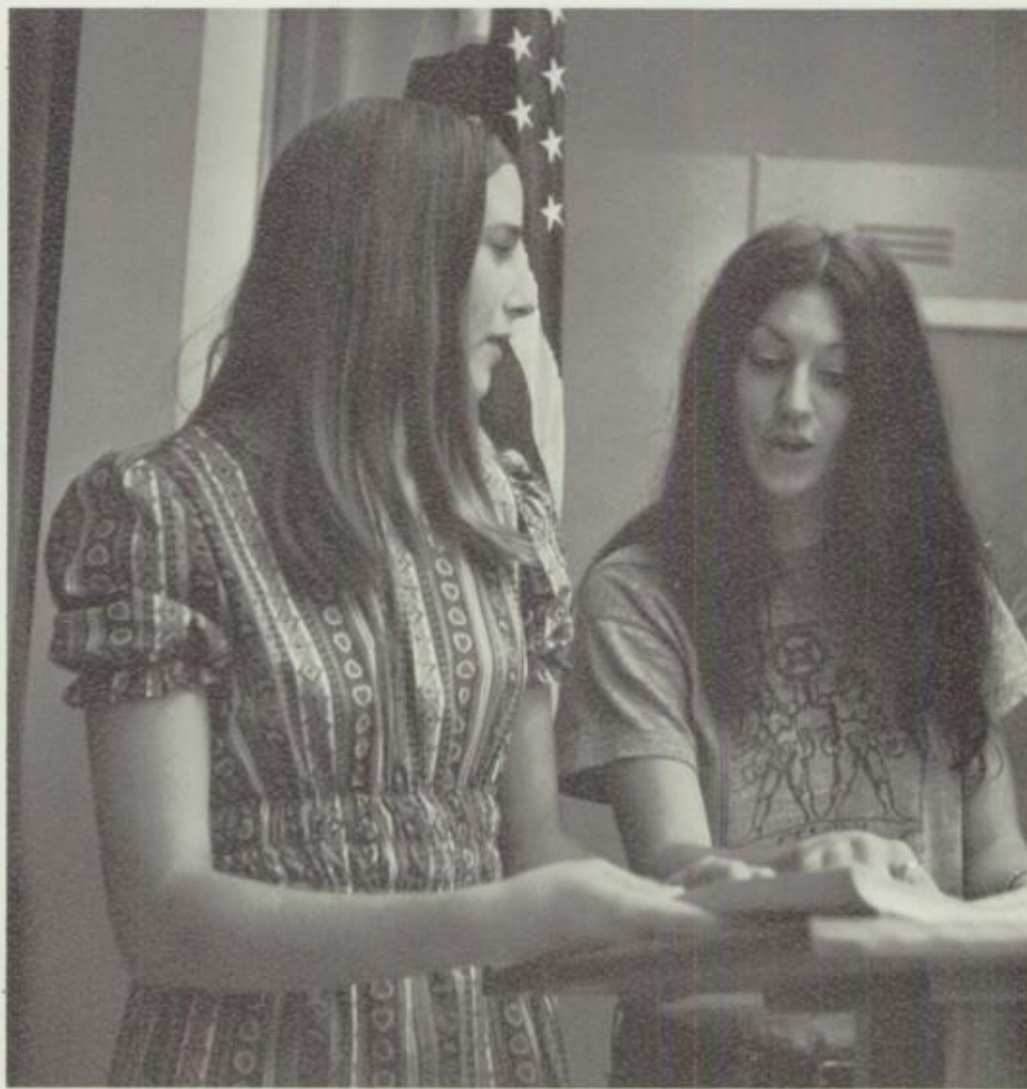

And Ray dictates the story. Jim lends a hand to get this one out.

Speech: The New Outlet

The play is the thing, and it must be done on stage. Mrs. Davis is shown waiting for her actors to assemble.

"Students may rehearse scripts or study characters on their own time, commented Mrs. Norma Davis, Speech teacher, regarding Modular Scheduling: the individual approach it affords drama students. Speech I students meet twice a week in small groups, where they study forensic, or platform, speeches first semester and drama speeches second semester, including scripts, poetry, and other literature. They meet twice a week in large groups for exercises, films, and lectures. Advance speech students perform at rest homes, junior high schools, or television shows. An added opportunity this year came through English Literature large groups meetings where drama students were asked to present Shakespearian duet acting, soliloquies, and panel discussions.

Home Economics:

Returning teachers gave an enviable stability to the Home Economics Department as it moved from a traditional approach to Modular Scheduling. Mrs. Joann Burnley taught foods in a team approach with Mrs. Shirley Dalton. Mrs. Lucy Spear, Department Chairman, taught Clothing and Mrs. Camille Wean taught Clothing and Home Living. All of the faculty members, homemakers in their own right as well as professionals in their field, are enthusiastic about the future of the department under the new schedule as student enrollment grows.

A New Freedom

"Homemaking lends itself to Modular Scheduling," stressed Mrs. Lucy Spear, Chairman of the Home Economics Department. Fewer, but longer lab periods helped students get more accomplished, whereas preparation and cleanup activities were critical under a conventional time schedule. Students also enjoy being able to come in on unscheduled time to work on garments, or complete a project in housing class. Large groups were designed for guest speakers, films, and panel presentations. This way all could hear a speaker who could only come once.

If he can't match a woman's place in the kitchen, at least a boy can try agree John LeMoine and Mrs. Burnley.

Practical home living is under study by Carla Davis and Mrs. Wean.

Homemaking instructors were also gratified that were able to present the same material to all of the students in large groups, instead of having to recap the same information to many classes. Family living classes made use of small groups to discuss more freely the ideas presented in large group. Planning, preparing, and serving family meals lends itself well to a longer lab period, with better use of time, money, and materials by independent study.

Sharon Hipfner, Jan Kuhn and Carla Davis turned out some para-professional chair upholstering last year.

Mrs. Wean also uses a broad spectrum of audio-visual materials in classes.

Industrial Arts:

Student interest in the Industrial Arts Department intensified the year with open labs, more unscheduled time, and the opening of a new Electronics course. Electronics instructor Mr. Gene Reedy received a degree in Industrial Arts Education from Oklahoma State University at Stillwater. He is now working on a degree in Trade and Industrial Education. Other instructors include Mrs. Margaret Byrd, Distributive Education, Mr. John Dial, Power Mechanics, Mr. Jimmy Johns, Woods, Mr. Don Randolph, Drafting and Driver Education, and Mr. Duane Selvey, Machine Shop and Aviation.

Some New Choices

Machine shoppers in training are Don Hubbs, Carl Hess, and Mike Watson under the close supervision of Mr. Selvey.

“What I like about this program is that we can finally finish what we start!” commented Mr. Don Randolph, Chairman of the Industrial Arts Department. Check-out and clean-up time under the former system rendered operations difficult in the west wing — but now larger mods of time, two or three times a week, are proving highly beneficial to vocational students. The department maintained open labs, for the most part, whereby students could follow interests more completely on unscheduled time. All subjects were arranged by medium lab groups — some, such as the machine shop and power mechanics, utilizing the large groups for films, testing, and lectures. The department continued to expand with the addition of Electronics this year. Students studied DC and AC circuits, vacuum tubes, and transistor fundamentals.

That ought to keep 'er rolling. Kerry Irwin and Chris Pierce mount a tire while Mr. Dial sits by to offer help.

With an impact of change throughout the school, East Central's Mathematics Department eased the transition period with the return of its five veteran teachers. Well known to most Cardinal students are Mr. Rodney Bridges, versatile in Algebra and Varsity Athletics, Mrs. Lavenia Daniels, Algebra, Mr. Ed McCray, Geometry and Trigonometry, Mr. Lawrence Peck, Geometry and Algebra, and Mr. Luther Younger, Geometry and Algebra instructor.

A New Ratio

Math instructors make frequent use of audio visual aids. Here, Mr. Younger is also using the overhead projector.

"A one-to-one correspondence between student and teacher: this is what our new math resource center has to offer," stated Mr. Ed McCray, Department Chairman of Mathematics. With the center, students are now able to approach math with a new perspective, learning through films, tapes, games, adding machines, computers, slide rules, books, and programed texts. All students are hand-scheduled two mods a week into the center. The department was designed to begin with large groups and general theory: films, demonstrations, and lectures. Large group is considered the most effective way of disseminating a large body of knowledge in a short span of time. Students then attend labs, where their learning process is bolstered by their individual instructors.

Doug Roundtree might conclude that the Math Resource Center is like nothing he ever saw before-not at E.C.

Mrs. Penny Thomas

The most vitally revised department at East Central this year is physical Education, since students helped select the new course offerings. Mrs. Penny Thomas joined the staff full time, after having taught in the science department last year. The other faculty members are Mr. Gerald Clark, who also teaches varsity athletics, Mr. Eddie Dyer, Department Chairman, and Mrs. Pat Holder.

Athletic boss: Mr. Dyer calls out signals to typist Vickie Lambrect.

Several New Courses

Water games and physical health are graceful companions in girls' phys ed.

"We arrived at some of our unusual events for Physical Education through a survey we took last spring with our sophomores and juniors," stated Mr. Eddie Dyer, Director of the East Central P.E. Department, in reference to a broadly expanded curriculum. For the first time co-educational courses were offered in bowling, horseback riding, sailing, the art of casting - fly and closed reel - and boat safety, in addition to regularly scheduled courses in gymnastics, volleyball, lifesaving, football, archery, bowling, golf, swimming and weights. Boys and girls met three small group sessions and one large group session per week, with the large groups being utilized for guest speakers, films, and testing purposes.

Rough and tumble action — they really like it in boys' phys ed classes.

Science:

Developments in the Science Department brought two new teachers and a change in status for Mr. Rodney Goodsell, who started the year initially as a Biology instructor and then assumed the full-time duty as Independent Study Coordinator under Modular Scheduling. Mr. Louis Crossley joined the staff from Wiley College in Marshall, Texas where he received a B.S. degree in Biology and Chemistry. He taught at Central High in Tulsa last year. Mr. Denver McGee, Biology, was graduated from Northeastern State with a B.S. degree in Education.

A New Effectiveness

Before his assignment as Independent Study Coordinator, Mr. Goodsell began the year as a science teacher.

“I have more planning time to get experiments and demonstrations together, which in turn makes the program more effective for the students,” observed Mr. Pat Ward, Chairman of the Science Department, in behalf of Modular Scheduling. Some facets of the science field such as a chemistry course, are more dependent on directed study and the safety factor involving assigned goggles than many other areas in school; therefore, no open labs were designed during the first year. The idea, however, is being studied for the future. Those in large groups learned by visual aids such as films, the overhead projector and transparencies, guest speakers, and lectures, while they participated in demonstrations in small groups and directed experiments in lab groups.

A different point of view: The photographer looks in on Mr. McGee's class, busy on a lab assignment.

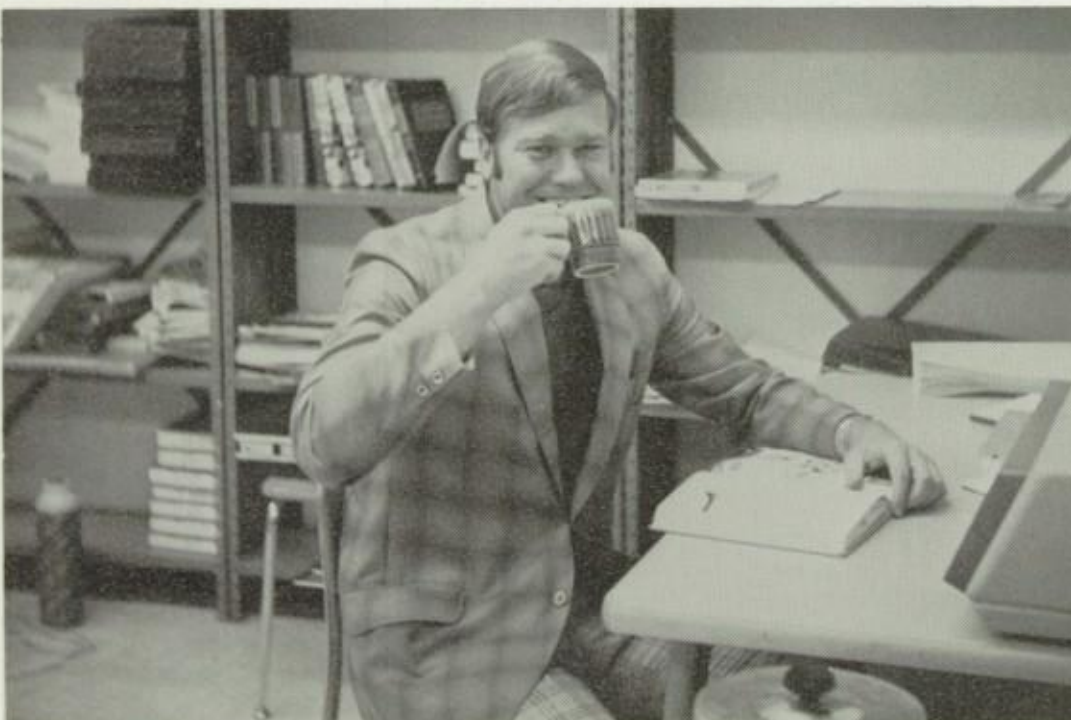

Social Studies:

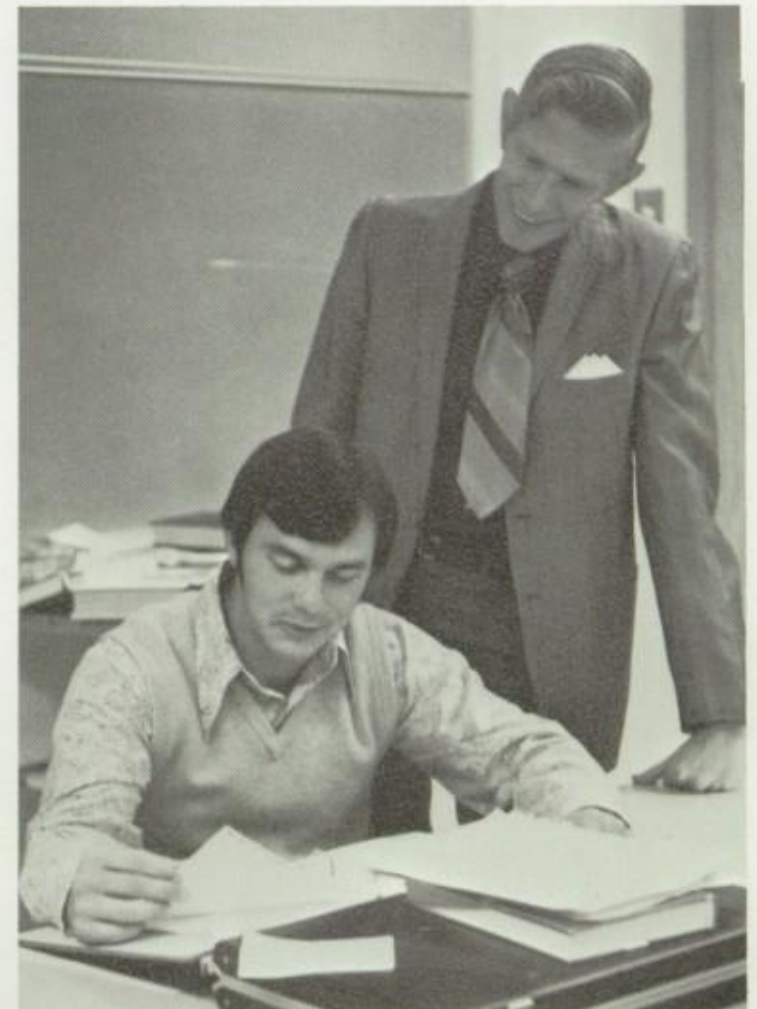

Mr. O. D. Bell
Mr. Harvey McDaniel
Mr. Jim Smittle

Mr. Ron Bloom
Mrs. Wilma Millier
Mr. Bob Smith

Miss Sue Jones
Mr. Gerry Sergeant
Mr. Wes White

Eleven faculty members comprise the E.C. Social Studies Department, headed by Mr. O. D. Bell. New to the department this year is Mr. Sterling Rice, who was graduated from Northeastern State College at Tahlequah with a B.A. degree in Education. He has also taught at Nathan Hale High School in Tulsa. Other instructors, well established in the esteem of Cardinal students, are Mr. Ron Bloom, Miss Sue Jones, Mr. Harvey McDaniel, Mrs. Wilma Millier, Mr. Gerry Sargent, Mr. Jim Smittle, Mr. Bob Smith, Mr. Wesley White, and Mr. Eddie Dyer, Psychology, whose picture appears in the Physical Education Department.

Mr. Smittle and Mr. Sergeant are shown casting around ideas for team teaching.

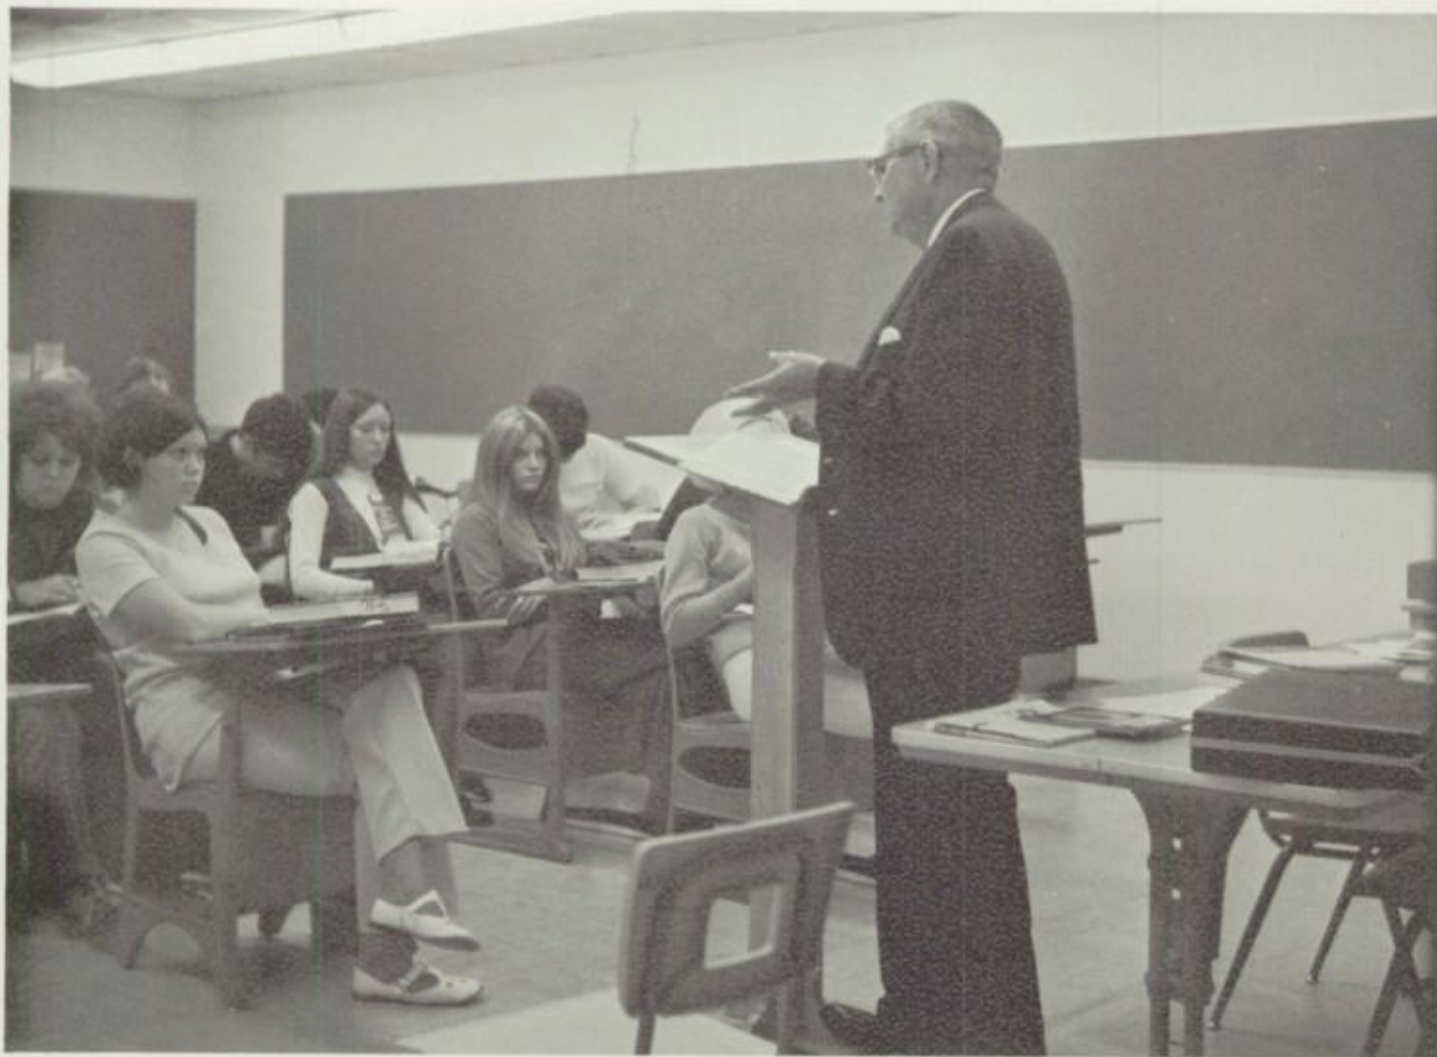

And there are moments of relaxation. Mr. McDaniel enjoys a break in the history office hub of the east wing.

A New Outlook

Mr. White and small groups are caught with their full attention up front.

"Our new program is geared to the individual student and challenges him to advance as far as his capabilities will allow," said Mr. O. D. Bell, Department Chairman, when asked about Modular Scheduling in relation to Social Studies. The department was completely reorganized this year with teachers being assigned to special teams in the fields of U.S. History, World History, Sociology, Economics, Government, Modern History, and Psychology. The new Social Studies Resource Center was available for students to pursue special interest items. Large group presentations were structured to cancel repetition and eliminate the omissions often encountered in a conventional schedule. Lab groups gave directed study and an opportunity for special assistance, while small groups gave an outlet for self-expression.

Mr. Bell explains that a student may excel as far as he chooses under the structure of modular scheduling.

Key Personnel: The New Significance

Mrs. Jane Azlin
Mrs. Betty Cox
Mrs. Doris Kiser

Mr. Randy Blair
Miss Pat Gillett
Mrs. Nancy Miller

Mr. Weldon Childress
Mr. Merle Jacobs
Mrs. Sharon Morrison

Key personnel at East Central, who do not of necessity fall into any major department, are vital to the function of this rapidly growing school. Mr. Merle Jacobs, Instructional Media Specialist, serves all departments at East Central. Mr. Weldon Childress is the full-time Driver Education instructor, and Mr. Randall Blair is in charge of all Stagecraft production. Two new Special Education teachers were added this year: Mrs. Jane Azlin, who received a Masters of Education degree from Central State University, and Miss Pat Gillett, who received a B.S. degree from the University of Tulsa. Also new this year are personnel in charge of the Resource Centers: Mrs. Betty Cox, English, Mrs. Doris Kiser, Fine Arts, Mrs. Nancy Miller, Mathematics, and Mrs. Sharon Morrison, Social Studies.

Below: Mr. Blair and Mr. Jacobs are shown in rare moments of leisure.

Office Staff: New Responsibilities

Mrs. Selma Beair
Mrs. Pat DeBoard
Mrs. Mary Laughlin

Mrs. Norma Briscoe
Mrs. Virginia Dipboye
Mrs. Pam Moore

Mrs. Dorothy Clampitt
Mrs. Paula Gallier
Mrs. Ethel Thompson

Mrs. Jan White

"Finding students on unscheduled time has certainly been a problem," stated Mrs. Mary Laughlin, Scheduling-Counselors' Secretary, when asked about the office staff and Modular Scheduling. Other new responsibilities facing the ever-busy staff included more paper work than ever before, and the task of scheduling school service students into mods instead of hours. Other staff members are Mrs. Selma Beair, Receptionist and Assistant Registrar; Mrs. Pat DeBoard, Assistant Attendance; Mrs. Norma Briscoe, Attendance Clerk; Mrs. Dorothy Clampitt, Library and Audio Visual Clerk; Mrs. Virginia Dipboye, Publications Clerk; Mrs. Paula Gallier, Treasurer; Mrs. Pam Moore, Registrar; Mrs. Ethel Thompson, Bookstore Clerk; and Mrs. Jan White, Secretary to Mr. Payne.

Mrs. Clampitt could stay busy with East Central film orders alone.

How does she do it with a smile? Mrs. Moore has about 1,800 students to keep track of in the main office.

Special Services: A New Effort

What sign? Mr. Cole and Mr. Sneed cover the entire building on day shift.

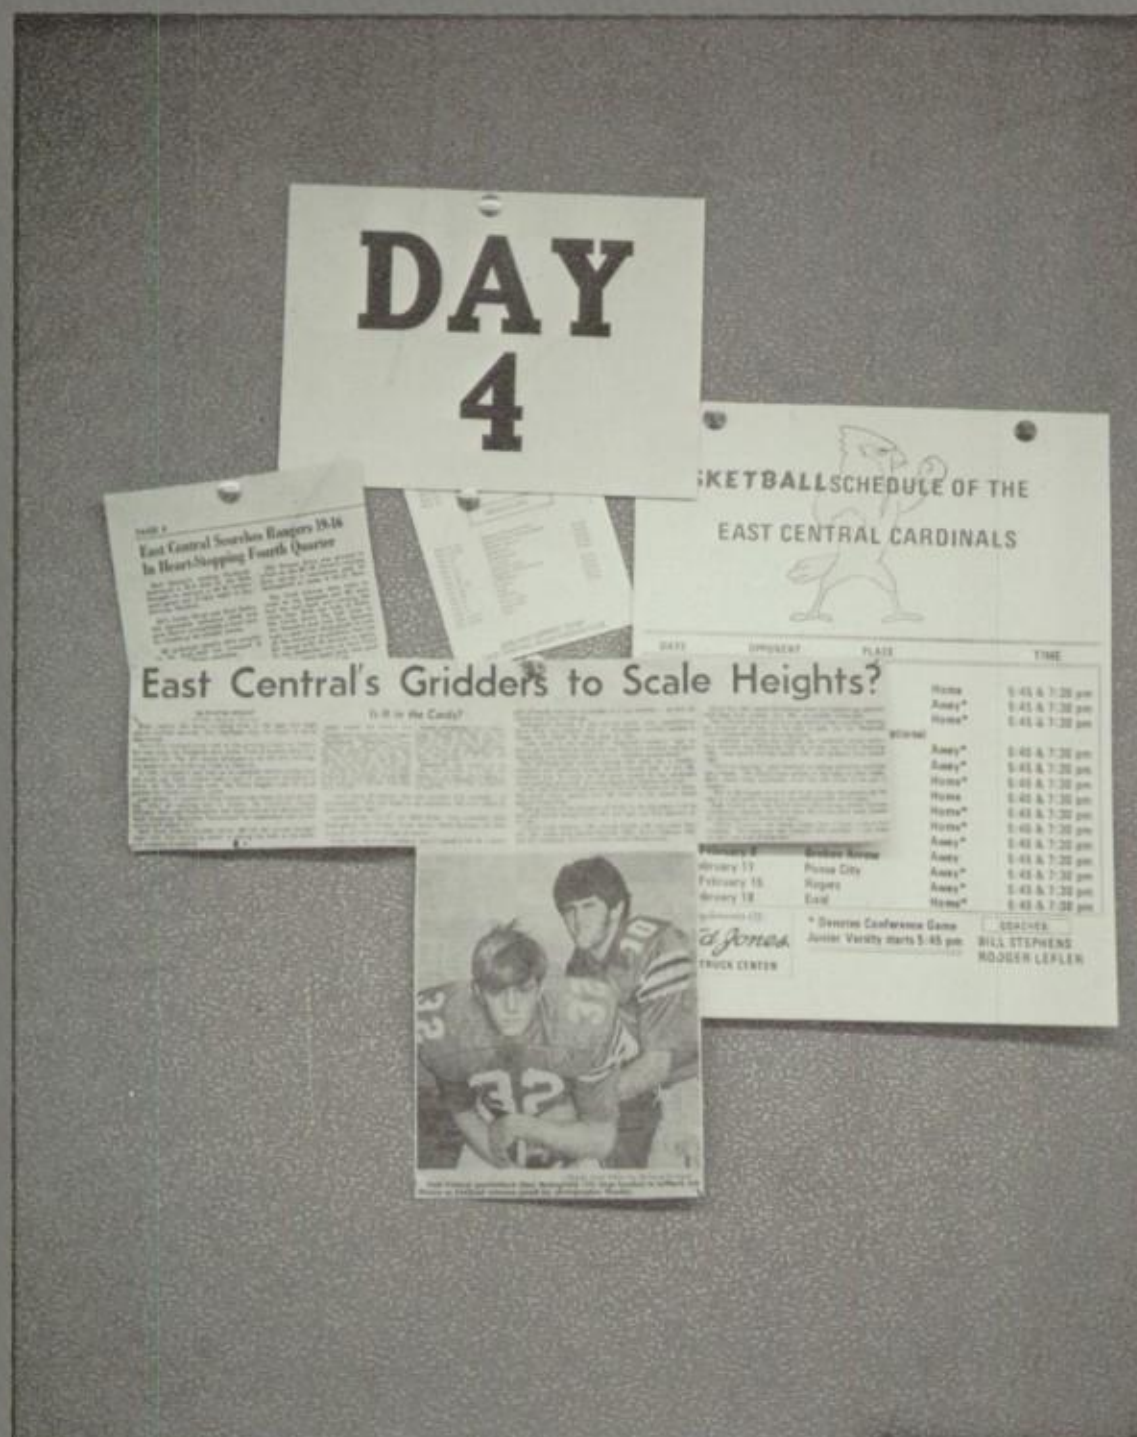

Mrs. Mildred Bailey and Mrs. Frances Spicer, P.T.A. representatives, helped promote Homecoming in October.

As the impact of change sounded through each department of the building, so all were caught up in its echoes, including special service people at East Central: the custodians, cafeteria workers, and P.T.A. representatives. The state of national and local economy forced a cutback in the maintenance staff. Mr. Bob Sneed, Head Custodian, and his first engineer, Mr. Ziffer Cole, were the only two on the day shift, keeping hours from 6:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Their primary concern was plant heating and air conditioning. Second engineer Mr. Robert Head and a crew of nine were in charge of cleanup work from 3:00 to 11:30 p.m.; Mr. David Logsdon completed the 24-hour cycle by working 11:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. in the locker rooms. Mrs. Mildred McNeill, Manager of the cafeteria, and her staff of nineteen opened the kitchen at 7:00 a.m. to meet the early serving time of 10:20 a.m. Amid jokes of "Last call for breakfast!", students formed the lunch lines as early as 11:00 a.m. As in the past, the P.T.A. representatives were around to help in any way they could. P.T.A. officers are Mrs. Mary Smith, President; Mrs. Selma Bear and Mrs. Betty Romine, Vice Presidents; Mrs. Dorothy Sanders, Secretary; Mrs. Grethren Ethington, Treasurer; and Mrs. Gerry Mendoza, Delegate for the organization.

Mrs. Mildred McNeill, upper left, and a staff of eighteen, have lunch ready to go at 10:20 a.m. daily.

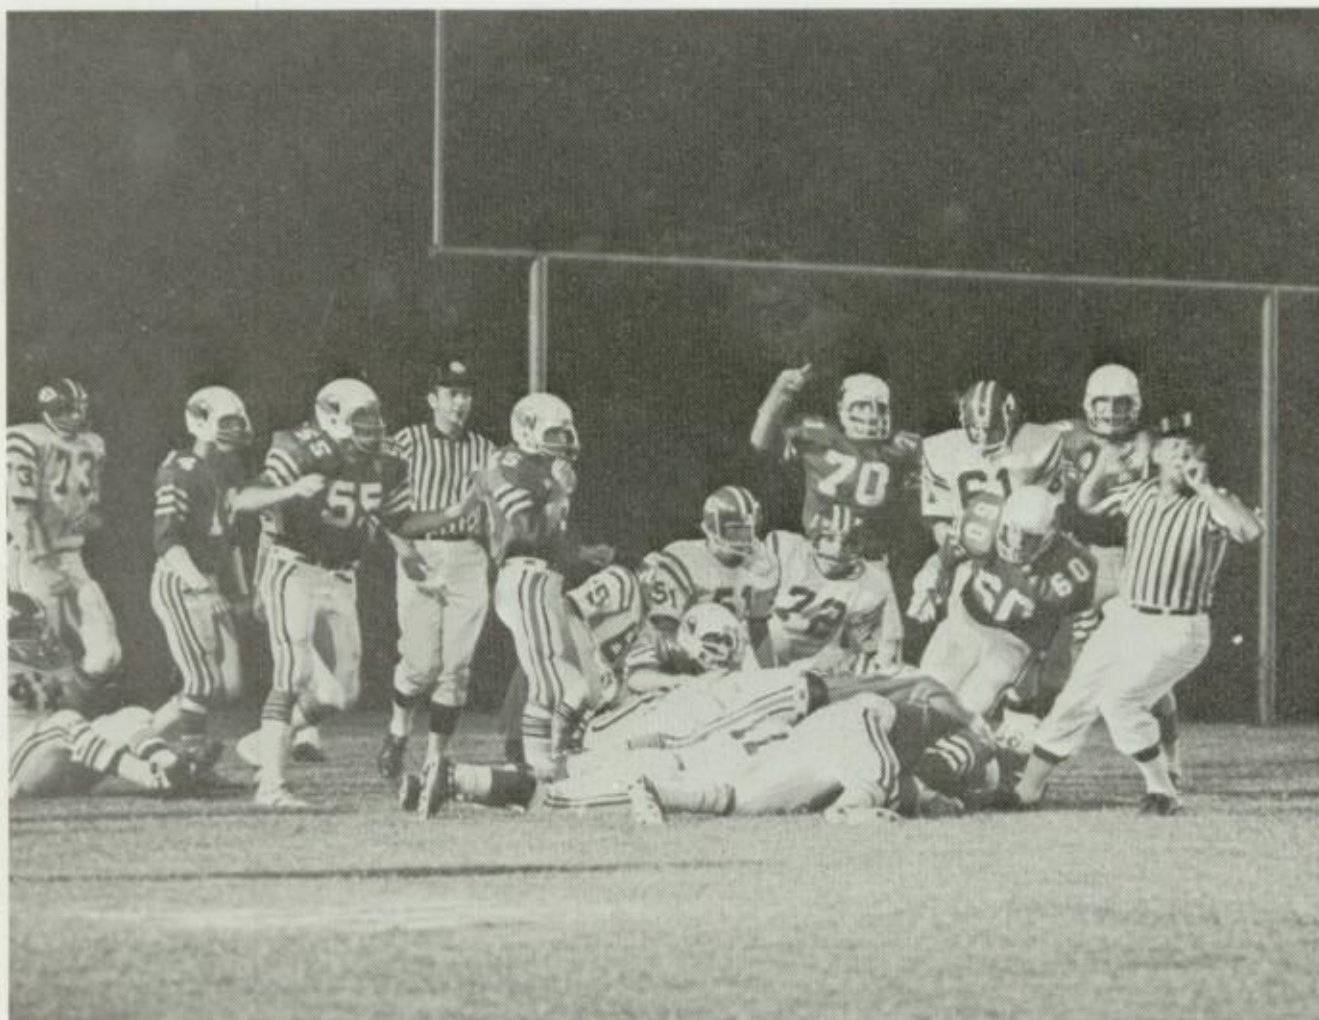

Cardinals Win First

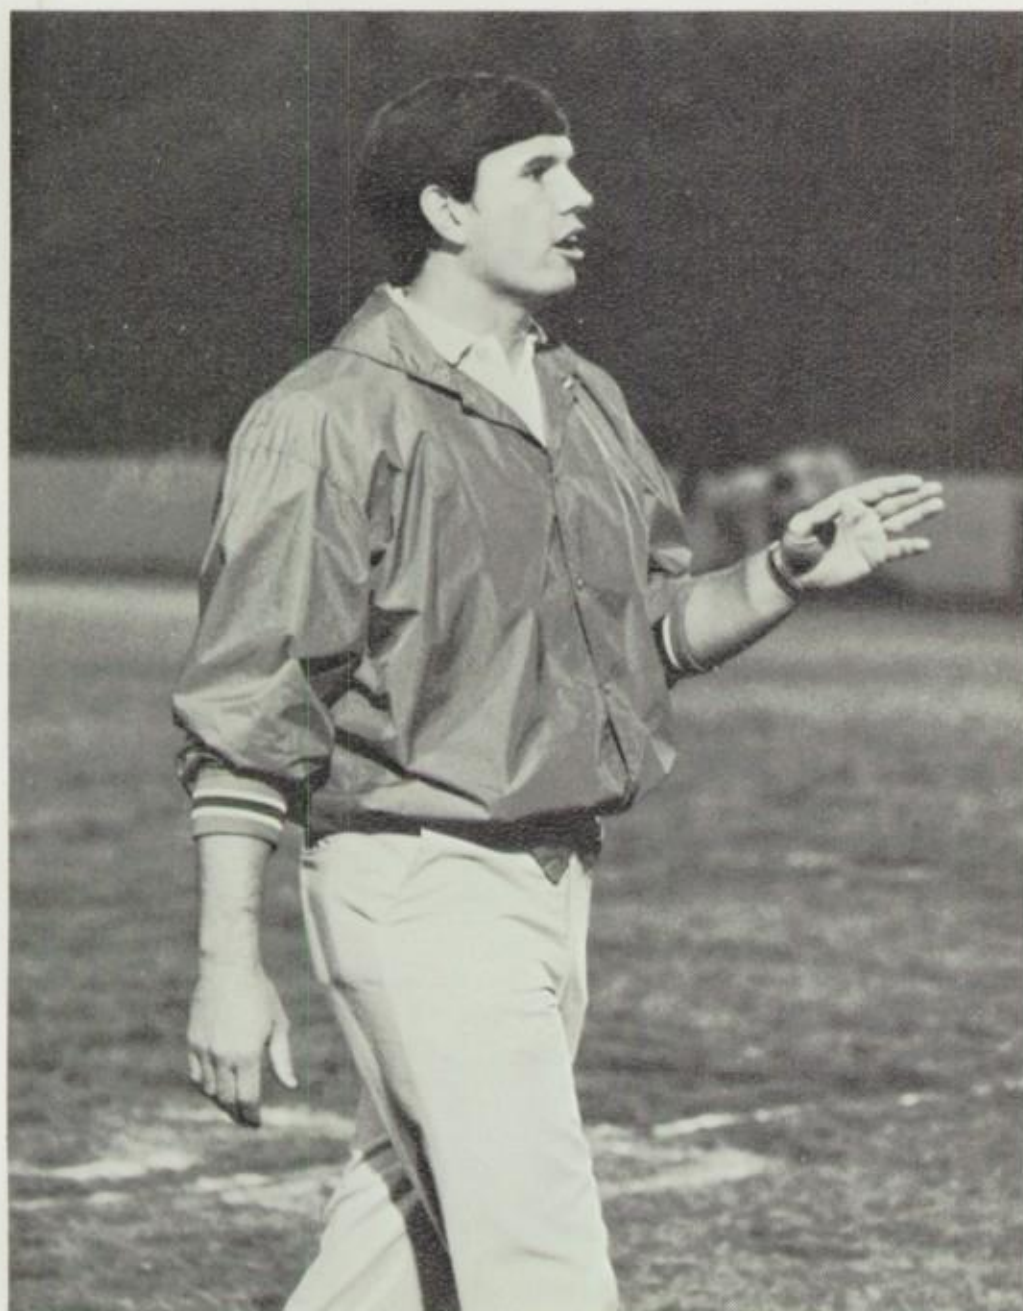

Glenn Bedingfield gets off another yard-gaining pass against Enid.

The 1971 season saw a dedicated group of young men put together one of the most exciting seasons in Tulsa prep football. E.C. won the Indian Nation Conference plus the Consolation Trophy in the All-City with victories over Central and Hale. The Cardinals opened their season with the powerful Edison Eagles, who had defeated them 6-0 in All-City the previous week. E.C. was tied by the Eagles 6-6. The next outing for the flying Cards was in the rain at McLain-where the Cardinal fans enjoyed a 38-0 win. The rain stopped, letting the Cards win the Eastside Championship game with the Hale Rangers. The Cards took a week off to heal bumps and bruises before playing the number 1 team in Oklahoma, the Washington Hornets. The game was a hard fought battle with both teams playing perfect football. The Cards tied the Hornets 7-7, to place the only blemish on Washington's record. Their only loss came at the hands of Memorial by a score of 10-6. Rebounding against the B.A. Tigers by a score of 48-18, lifted the Cards spirits so they could close their season with victories over Will Rogers, 21-14, and Ponca City, 40-6; giving them a 6-1-2 season, a 4-1 in conference, and 3rd place in state.

A close but definite touchdown makes E.C. look like a sure winner.

Conference Title Since 1956!

"A few comforting (?) words from our distinguished coach, Rod Goodsell."

Mike Birks flies high, catching a pass for added East Central yardage.

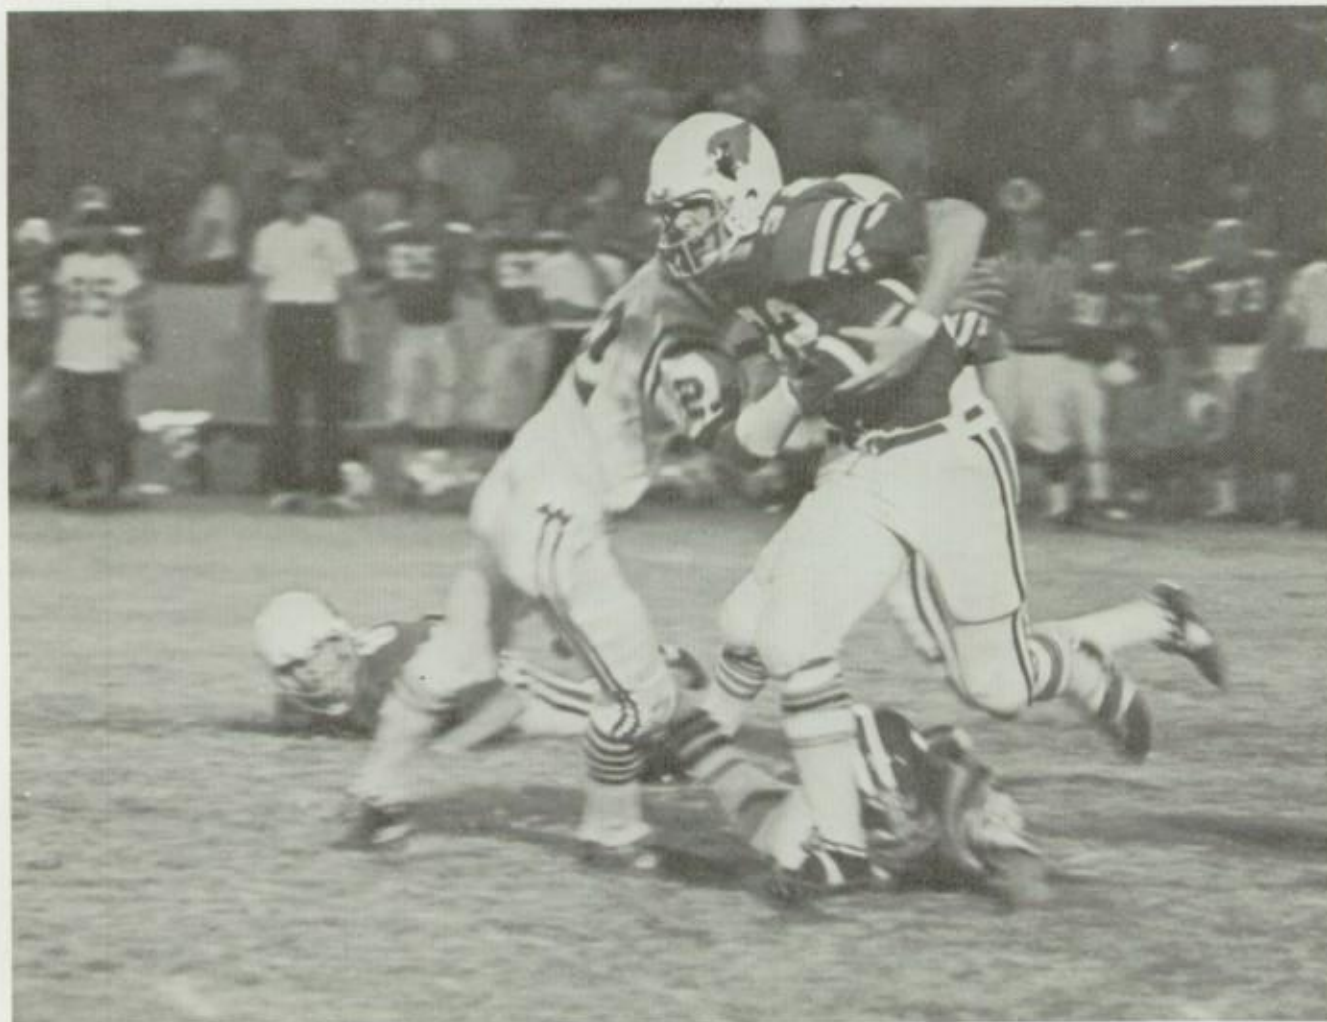

Slected by coaches to the all conference team were 13 E.C. players. They were: John Looney, DE; Mark Romine, DT; Jim Elrod, LB of the year; Paul Sallee, DHB; Scotty Stough, G; Kevin Dipboye, OT; Ron Spencer, TE, Back of the year; Mike Birks, FB; Glenn Bedingfield, QB; Terry Lunsford, FB. Honorable mentions were, Forrest Heath, OG; Tim Calvert, OG; James Ledbetter, DHB. Among other distinguished members of the E.C. team, 4 were selected as All-City. They were Jim Elrod, Mike Birks, Ron Spencer, and Terry Lunsford. Last but surely not least were E.C.'s first All-State players. They were: Jimbo Elrod, Mike Birks, and Ron Spencer. Honorable mention went to our Terry Lunsford, Glenn Bedingfield, Andy Heddin and Mark Romine. These Senior athletes will be leaving E.C. with a record of 18-7-3. Many of these seniors played on E.C.'s first winning football team as sophomores, so it is befitting for them to leave E.C. it's first football championship in 16 yrs.

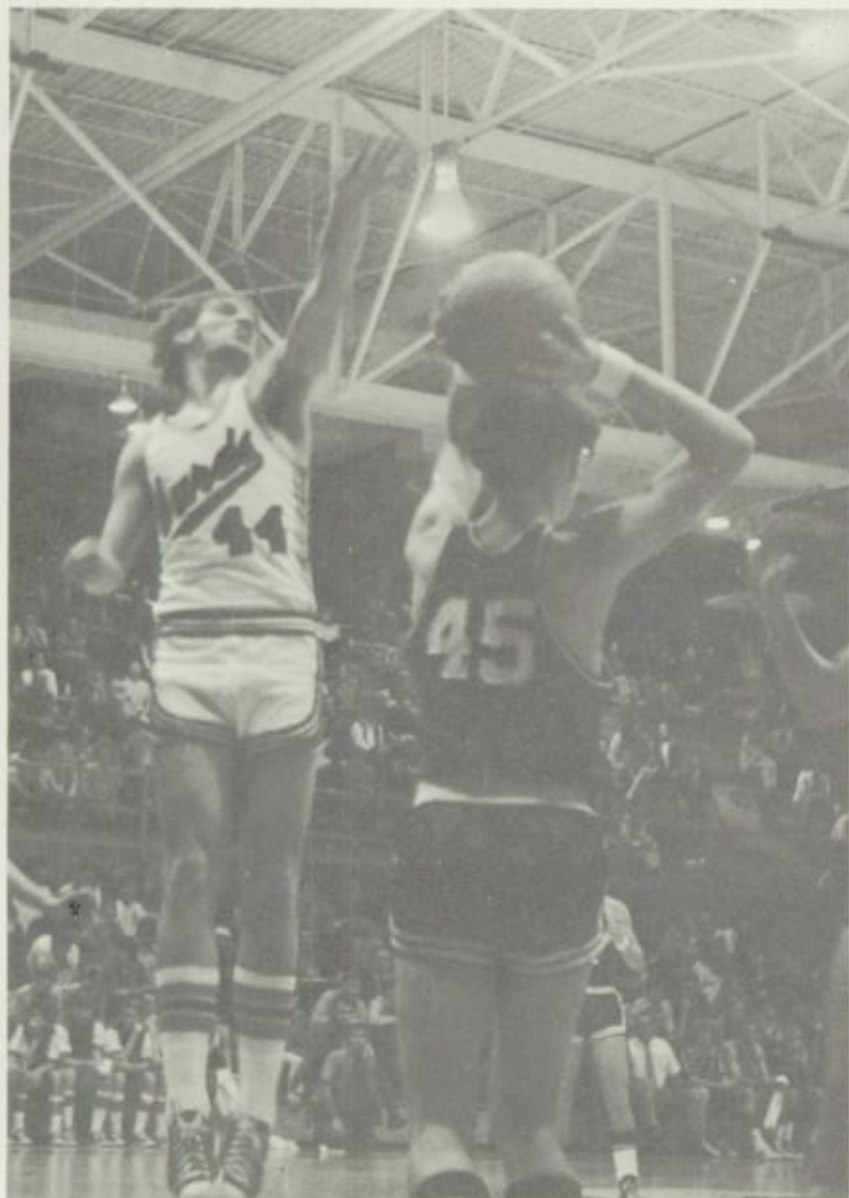

Cardinal defense repelled the forces to win over Ponca City 40-6.

Ronnie Hogue takes time and thought before making his free throw.

Cardinals Capture Conference Title

In an abrupt switch from "we want six points" and a conference title to "we want two points," the fighting Cardinals came through with another conference crown gleaming upon their highly held heads. The Cards have the right to display their title with pride as this is the first 4A conference title won by them since they became 4A. The leading scorer of the year, Mike Ferrell, held a 22.6 average and accumulated enough points in a single game to break the school record of 42. Other outstanding members of the team were: leading rebounder, Steve Sumner, 10.3 per game; leading free thrower, Steve Atkinson, 71%; and Ronnie Hogue who seemed to be the player that always came through in the tight ones. Hogue was also the second leading scorer with a 15 point average. The cagers made a great comeback after losing their first 2 games of the season and won 9 out of 10 of their last games. When asked his secret to success, Coach Stephens smiled and said, "We won the close ones."

E.C. cagers proved their ability and determination time and time again.

Steve Atkinson took the tip-off to Ferrell in the opening moments.

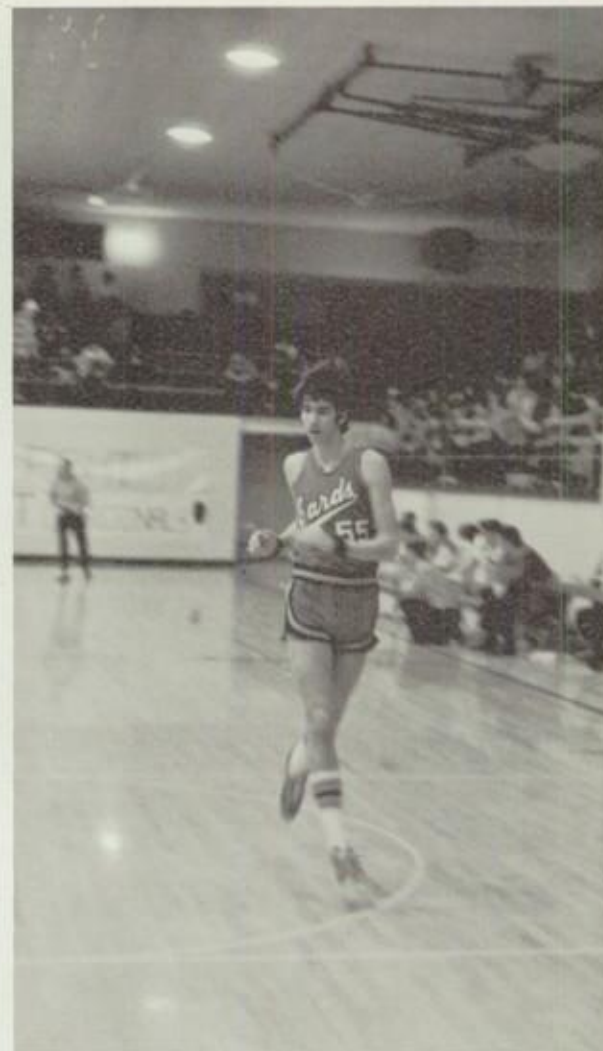

Even being heavily guarded, Mike Ferrell managed to be the city's 2nd leading high school scorer.

Let's Go Cardinals!

Buddy Divver made his best showing of the year by accumulating 16 points against the Rogers Ropers.

Lead by Ronnie Hogue, Cardinals make a fast break lead from down court.

Steve Sumner makes a rebound off a shot by Mike Ferrell.

Ronnie Hogue brings the ball down court and into action.

"Go! Jump Buddy!" scream the enthusiastic fans on this crowd pleasing play.

Mike, Steve, Ronnie, and Buddy appear to have a "Tiger" by the tail.

E.C. opponents watch in amazement as Mike Ferrell sinks another 2 points.

Cagers put the half-court press into operation against their opposition.

Steve Sumner makes a jump ball against the Broken Arrow Tigers.

Do It Cards!

Steve Atkinson, better known as "Goose," takes a rebound off the backboard.

E.C. Fish Swim Their Way To The Top

It's plain to see why Jim Beach is number one diver in our conference.

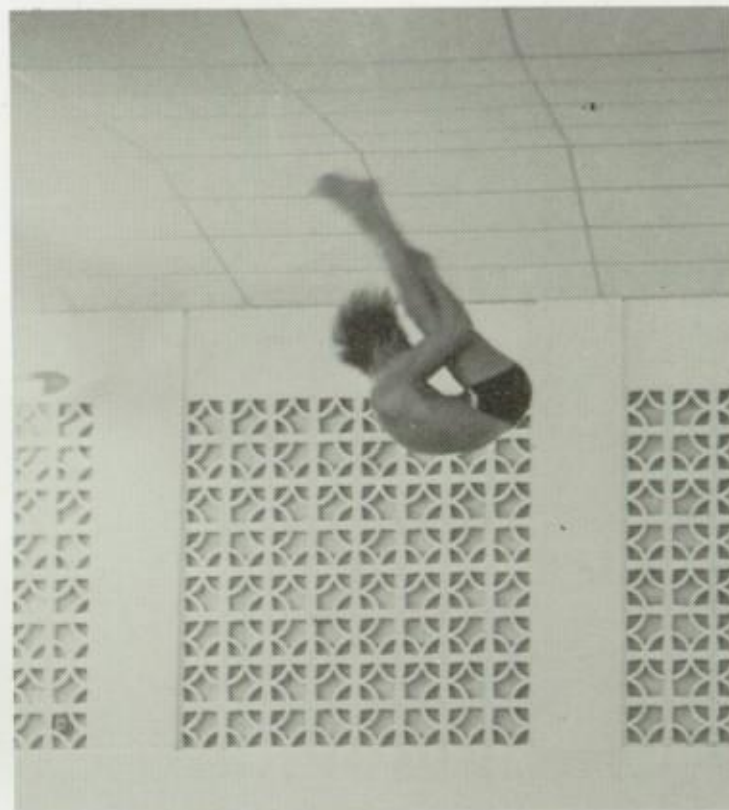

Splashing into the season with good divers like Jim Beach promised the fish a good season. Russell Curtis received third place for 100 yard backstroke and Bob Ethington, fourth for 100 yard butterfly in all-city meet. In conference Mark Phillips, David Klass, David Diven and Russell Curtis came in third place for 400 yard free relay. Also in conference Clayton Douglas received fourth place in diving. Jim Beach got high honors with a first in diving in all-city and conference and then a seventh in state.

Is it a stroke of luck or stroke of breath that drives Mark Hawkins on?

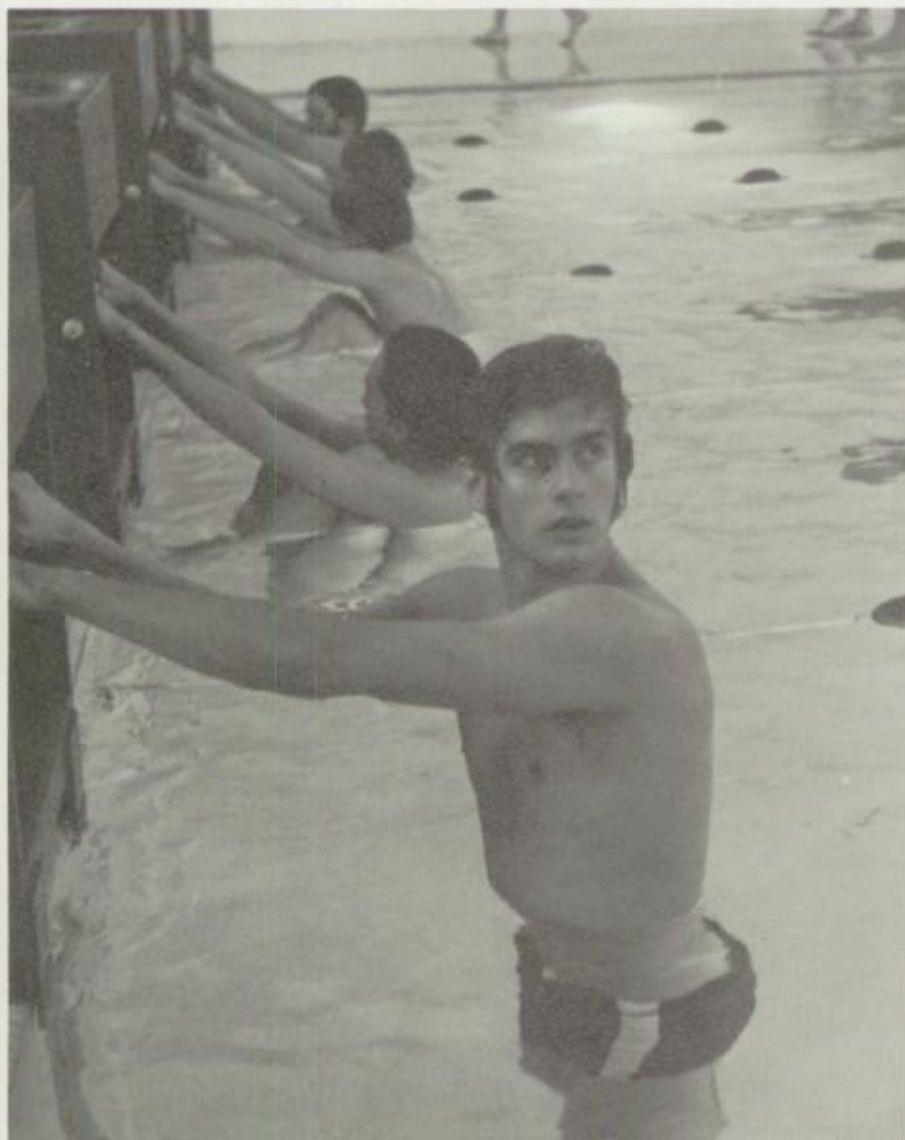

With starting positions readied, Jim Doye prepared to battle for first.

Clayton appears not to know which way is up as he executes his dive.

E. C. "Fish", Tom Muckenthaler, watches intensely for his signal to begin.

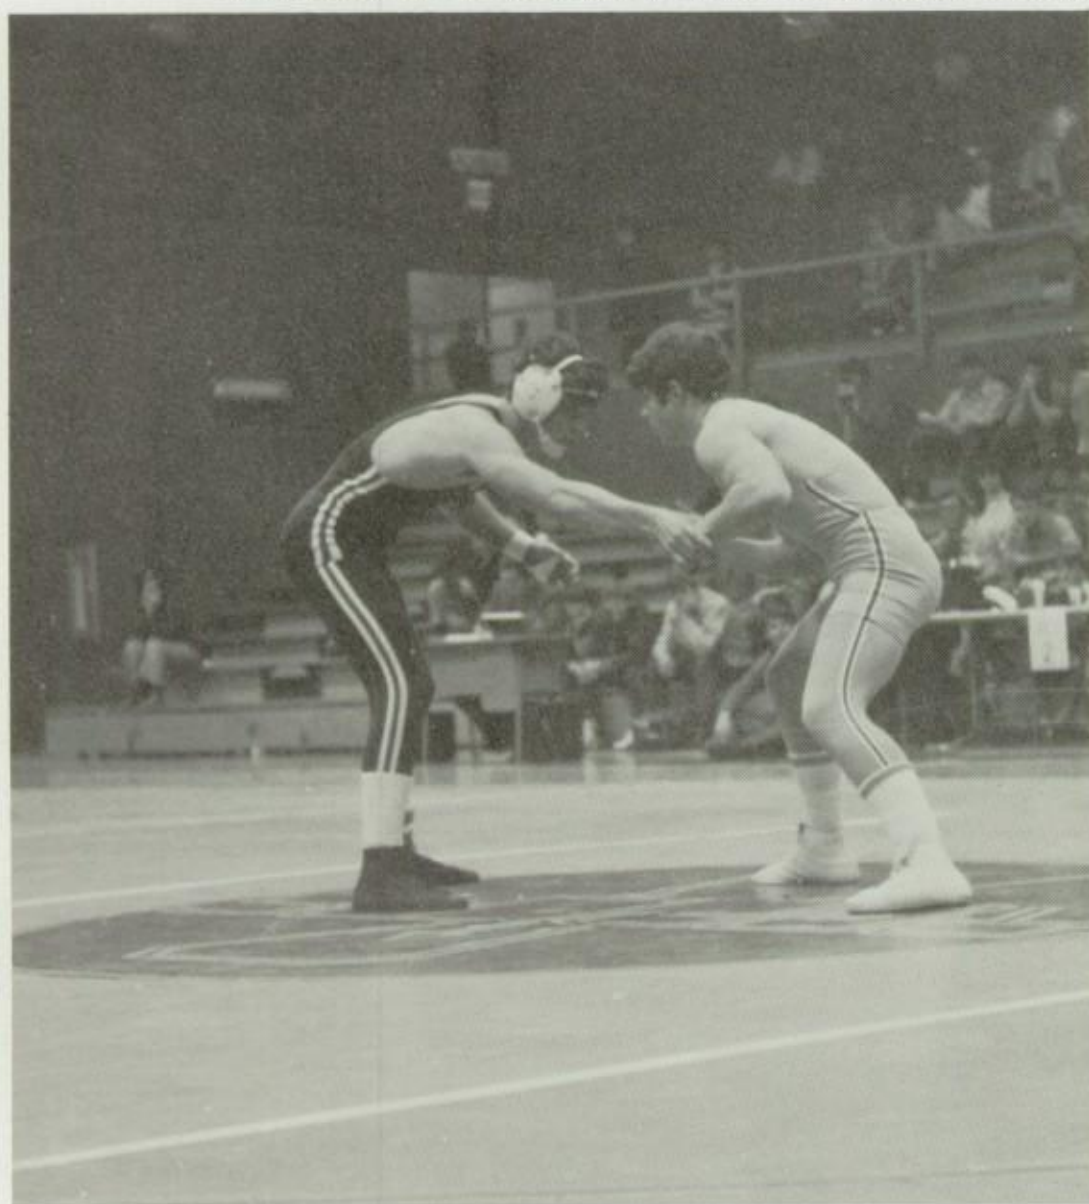

Bob Ethington demonstrates good style as he competes in the butterfly.

Matmen Grapple Way To The Top In 4A

Elrod begins the match against Memorial in the EC Tournament.

Hopes were high as the team went into Indian Nations Conference this year. Leading the matmen are two undefeated wrestlers, Mark Romine, heavyweight wrestler and Jimbo Elrod, at 178 pounds. Cards made history this year for the school by winning their first tournament, the Bristow tournament. Cards were host for one of the largest tournaments in the state the East Central Tournament with teams from Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas competing.

Billy NyQuist takes his opponent over and under into a tilt.

Larry Ludiker applies his acquired talent with a half Nelson.

Mark Romine is declared undefeated champion in a Memorial match.

Lettermen Lead Swingers To Victory

Beginning with almost a complete letterman crew, the E.C. baseball team held bright prospects for the coming season. Returning lettermen were Terry Neal, Lantz Day, Jody Wells, Alan Donaho, Dan Maxy, Ron Spencer, Roger Long, Tim Calvert, Buddy Diver, and Stan Holland. Steve King, Darrill Povlick, Mike Tremble and Les Diven also helped to place the Cardinal team in the winners bracket.

Not even the fast ones get past Jody.

Ron gets a signal from Coach.

A Hop, Skip, And A Jump To Victory

E.C. relay runners get set for a fast start against the Webster Warriors.

Allen McIntosh helped lead the Red Birds to victory in pole vaulting.

Track got off on the right foot this year with several good participants. Mike Birks, Don Woods, quarter mile; Jeff Fetterman, Jim Calvert and Dennis Larsen, distance runners; Paul Sallee, Arthur Ramos, Scotty Stough and Don Scott, sprinters; Lee Taylor and Danny Williams, shot putters; Allen McIntosh, pole vaulter; and Mike Payne, low hurdler. Jeff Fetterman broke the two-mile school record and placed 7th in state. These young men demonstrated endurance, ability, and sportsmanship to enjoy a winning season.

Letterman, Don Woods, gains extra speed as he brings in another E. C. victory.

Lee Taylor exerts that little extra push it takes to be a winner.

Could it be this that makes Scotty an outstanding Cardinal track star?

Cross Country Endurance Won Victory.

E.C. Cross Country team receives careful instructions from Coach Clark.

In the lead: Jeff Fetterman, Don Woods, Dennis Larsen, James Ledbetter, Ron Eaton, Don Heath and Gill Malone.

Golfers Get Into The Swing Of Things

Coach Dyer shows concentration as he prepares to tee off.

E.C. golfers display technique as they drive for a long one.

Golfers left to right: Jim Doye, Coach Eddie Dyer, Nick Morris, Jim Thompson.

Tennis Team Match Wits For Victory

Left to right: Gary Henderson, Kevin Holtz, Alan Phillips, Rick Starr, Ken Holland, Jerry Jones, Mickey Thurber, Terry Downing.

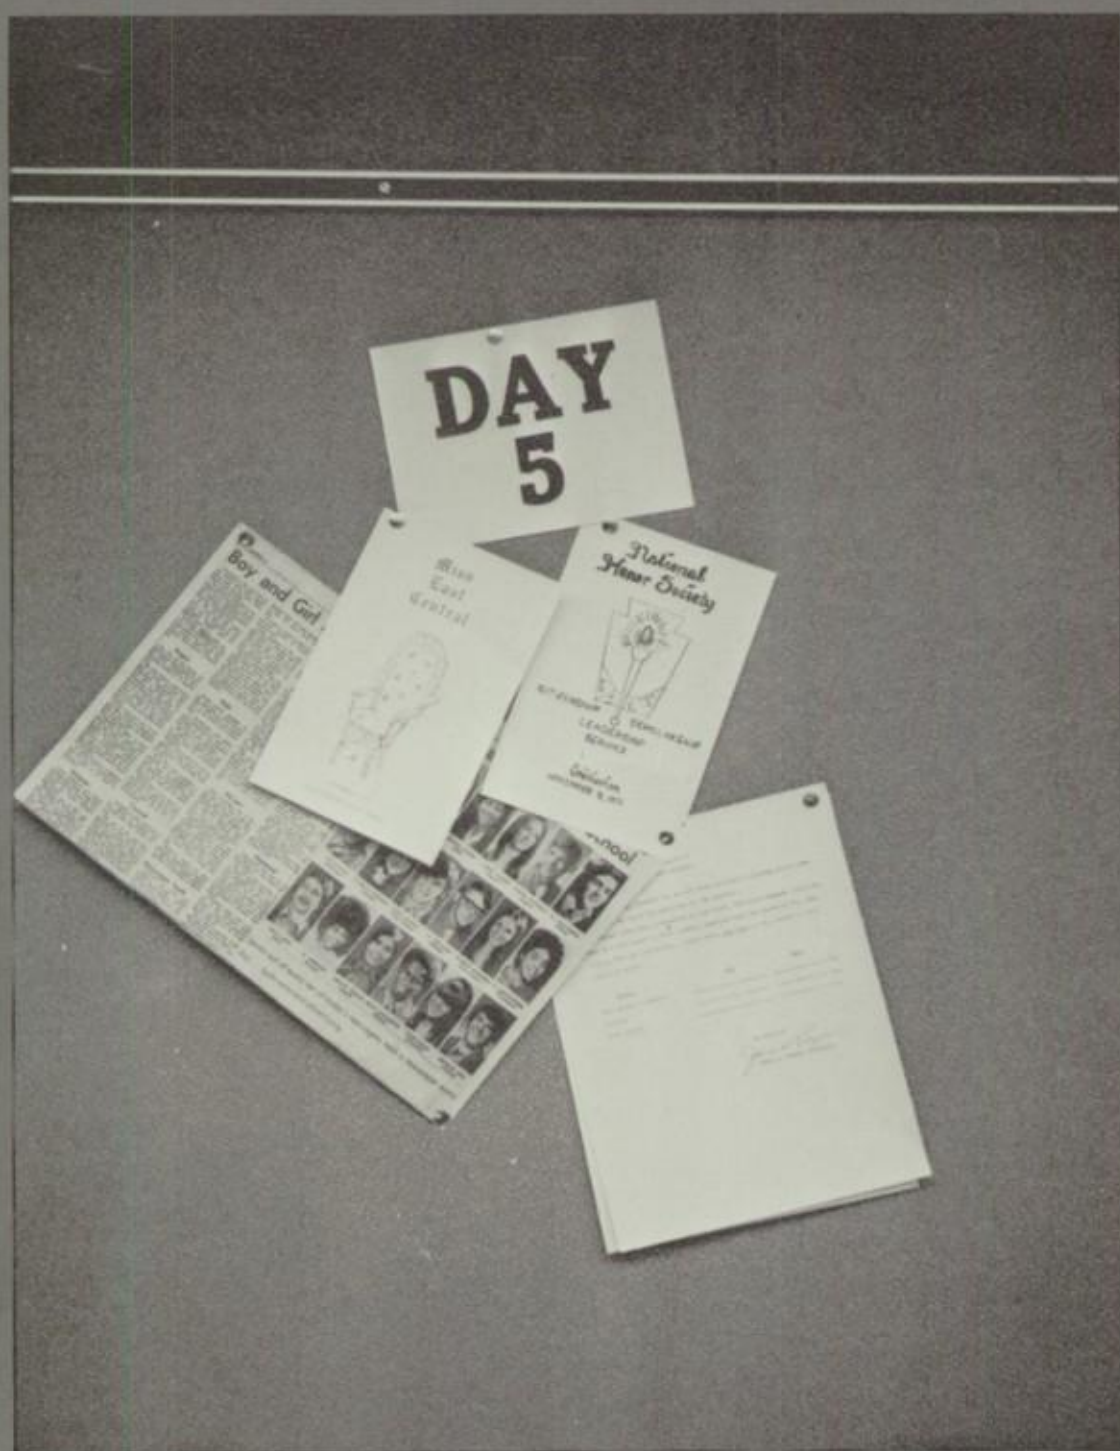

Jerry Jones seems to have mixed emotions about the outcome of the match.

Alan Phillips has learned to keep his eye on the ball if he wants to win.

On October 20, 1971, a new Miss East Central was crowned before her fellow students. The young lady was Miss Debi Eddington. Glancing into the past, her coronation reflected the ideas and proceedings of the royal courts of old England and France. Attending her were Senior, Tina Dennis; Junior, Mary Morgan; and Sophomore, Patricia Morgan. Debi was then presented with a bouquet of roses from the student body and the traditional charm bracelet from East Central represented by Mr. Payne.

The faculty at large chooses candidates for Hall of Fame on their diverse merits of skill and cooperation with school endeavors, whether it be working in power mechanics or baking cakes for Teacher Appreciation Day. September

Jimbo Elrod was chosen as September's Boy of the Month. Active in the athletic department, he received many outstanding honors including Regional Wrestling Champion, honorable mention to All-State, All-Conference Wrestling Champion, and the Indian Nations Player of the Year. In football, Jimbo was an all-star linebacker and also a player on the All-City team.

September's Girl of the Month was Debi Eddington. She was an active member of Catalinas for three years. Debi was also a representative to Student Council in her junior year and to the Red Cross in her senior year. A two-year cheerleader, Debi was head of the squad as a senior. In 1972 she reigned as Miss East Central VI and was Best All Around the last two years.

"I've met a lot of friends at East Central. I think it's a great school."

"God has truly blessed my life during my years at East Central."

E.C.'S Boy of the Month for October was Jim Bennett. He participated in Glee Club, Key Club, and the Mayor's Youth Council during his sophomore and junior years. Jim was initiated into the National Honor Society as a junior. During his senior year, he was in Boy's State, FCA, Senior Board, and Student council, serving as v.-pres. in 1972.

Shelli Roach was chosen as October's Girl of the Month. She was a three-year participant in the Catalinas, serving as its president in her senior year. As a sophomore, Shelli was honored by being selected as an attendant to Miss East Central IV and Best Looking in Who's Who. She has also been a member of the Pep Club and Student Council.

"It's all been very exciting! I'm very proud I was able to attend East Central."

"I appreciated the concerned teachers and sincere students who allowed me to have a wonderful year at E.C."

November

Paul Sallee was selected as November's Boy of the Month. He was active in football as a defensive half-back and in track as a sprinter. Because of his interest in sports, Paul was also a three-year member of FCA. He played the baritone in the concert band and was elected by his fellow classmates as Best Looking his soph., jun., and sen., years.

Girl of the Month for November was Marsha Hartsell. She was an active member of the Pep Club having been a cheerleader for the past three years. Marsha served on the Sophomore and Junior Boards, as Sophomore Class Treasurer, and Recording Secretary of the Student Council. As a sophomore, she was elected Best All Around and served as State Miss Civitan.

"The last three years at East Central were very exciting and rewarding."

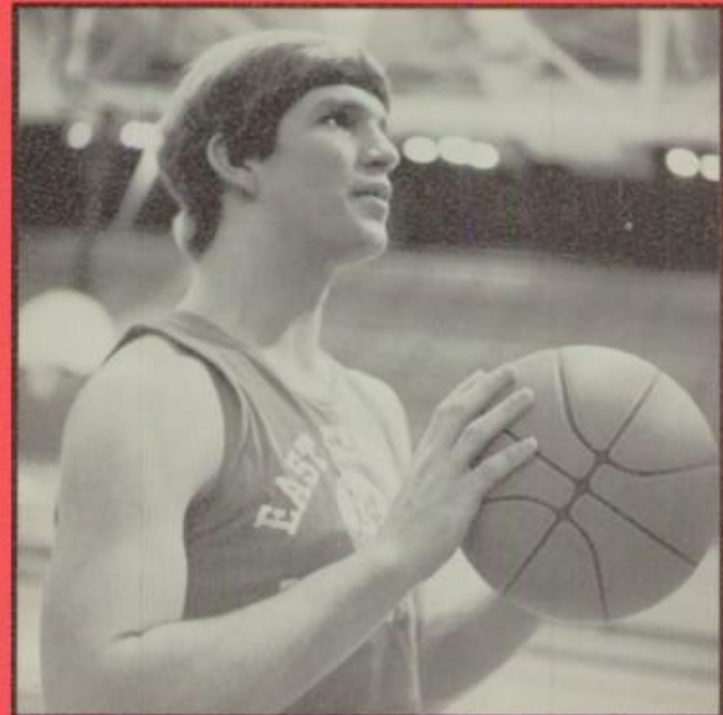

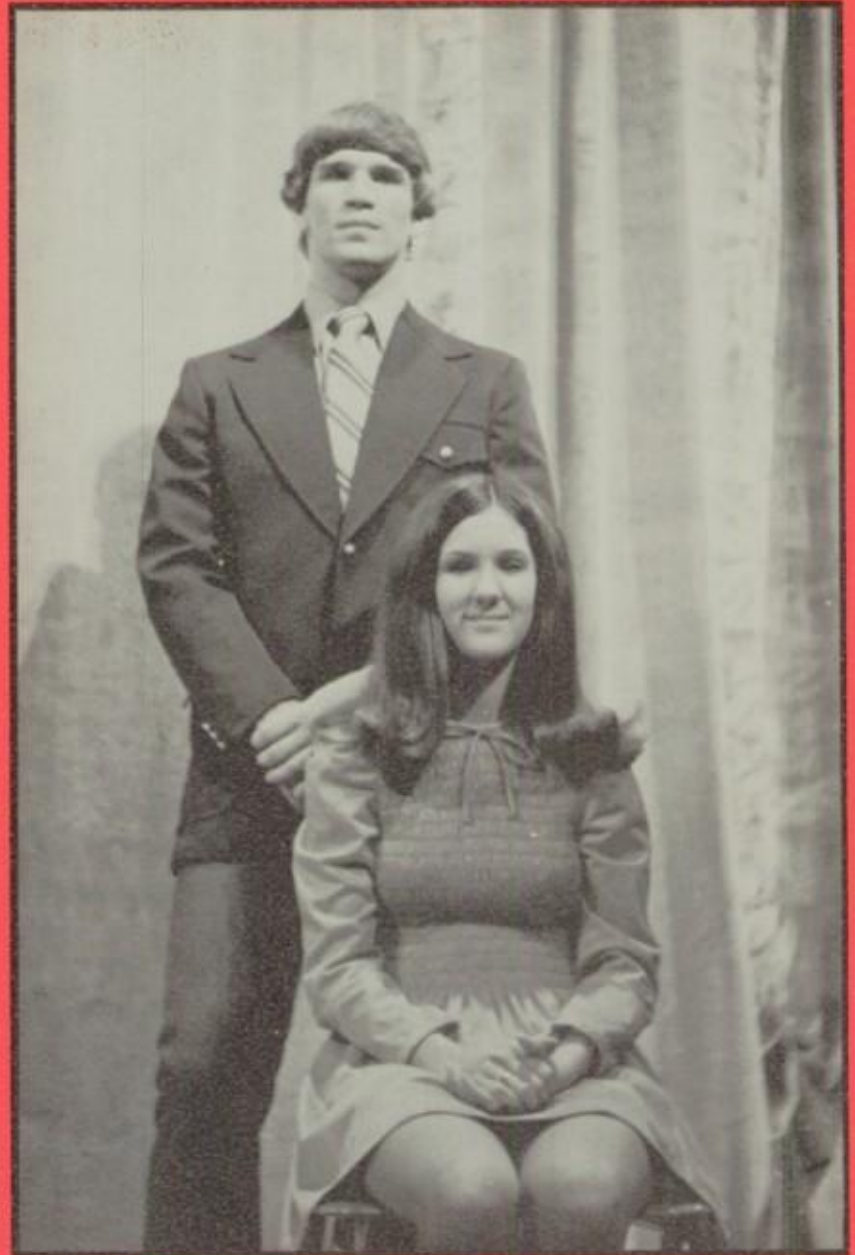

"It has been said that your high school years are the most exciting of your life. The E.C. students and faculty have made this true in my life also."

Buddy Divver was chosen Boy of the Month for December. He was a three-year member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Active in sports, Buddy played forward on the basketball team and third baseman on the baseball team. He also participated in several of the Cardinal organizations, including Student Council and the Junior Civitans.

Girl of the Month for December was Jan West. She was in the Student Council for three years and served as chairman of Boy and Girl of the Month Elections for two yrs. In her sophomore year, Jan was a member of the Pep Club; then she became a cheerleader in her junior year and was Pep Club Pres. She was elected Friendliest as a soph.

"It was fun both in and out of school."

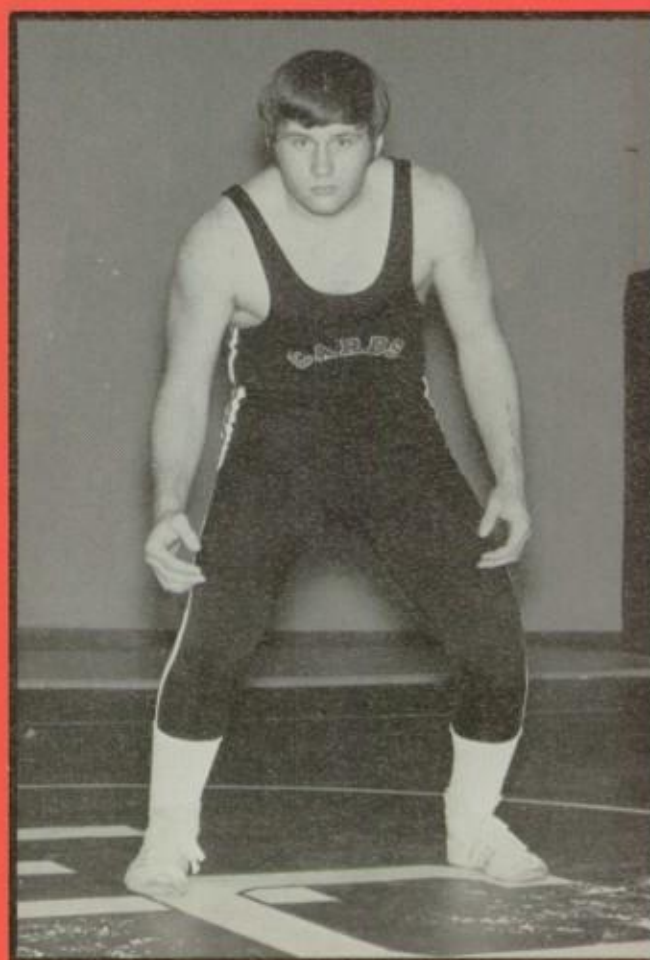

"I met a lot of new people and have had many opportunities to better myself."

January

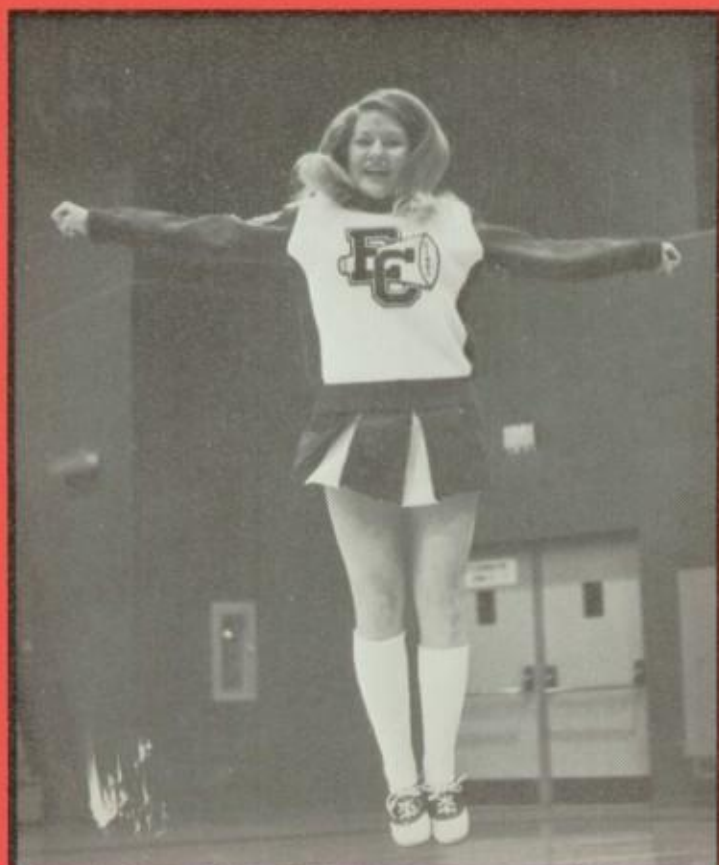

Mark Romine was elected as Boy of the Month for January. Interested in the Cardinal involvement, he was a Stu. Coun. homeroom representative as a sophomore and a member of the band and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in his junior and senior years. Mark's main talents lie in the sports of football and wrestling reigning as State Champ.

January's Girl of the Month was Cindy Lott. Cindy was involved in many organizations including Student Council and Sophomore Board in 1970 and FHS, AFS, and Spanish Club in 1972. Offices held were Sec. of the Red Cross as a junior and Senior Class V.-Pres. Spirit and enthusiasm were constantly reflected by Cindy as a Cardinal cheerleader.

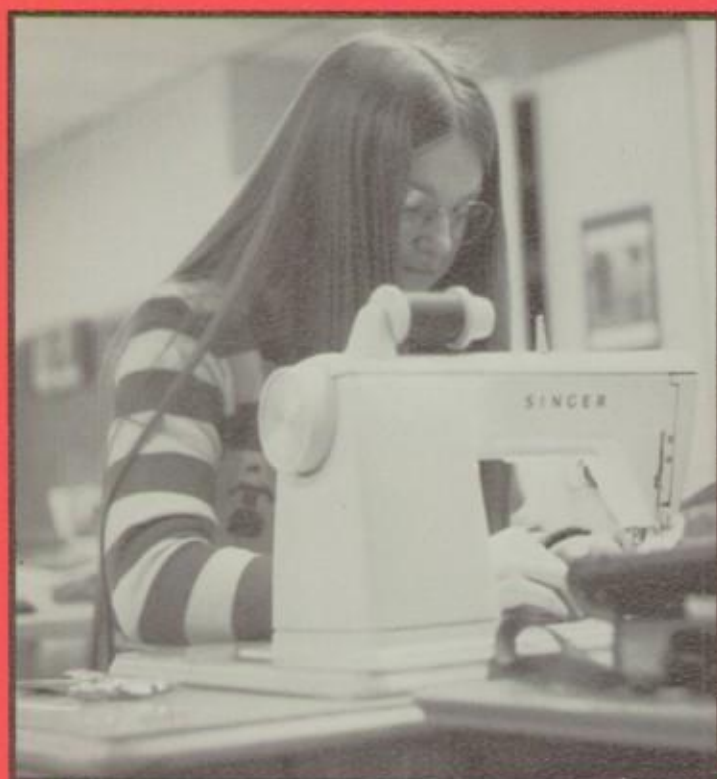

"I've really enjoyed the academic and sports activities of East Central."

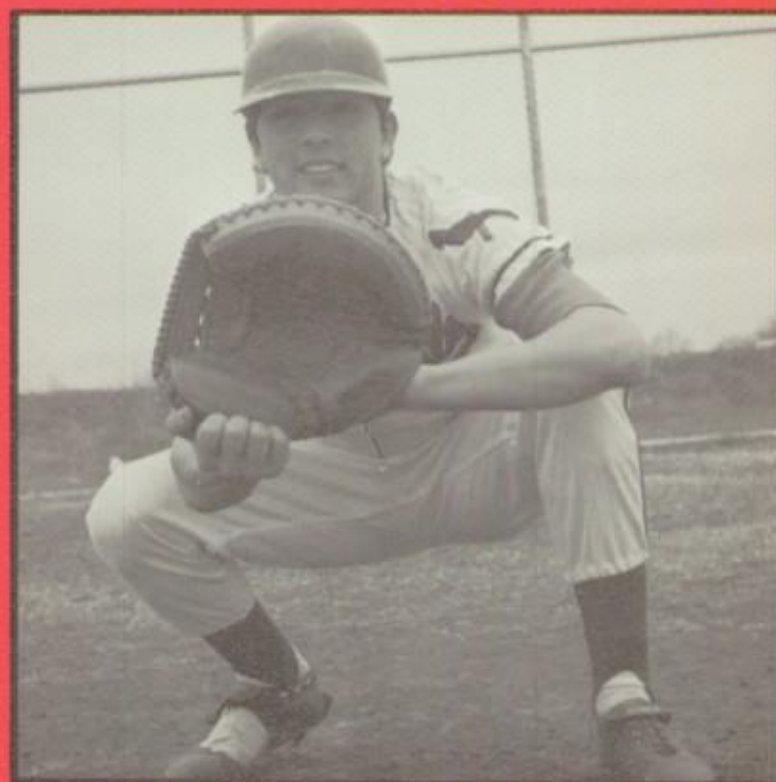

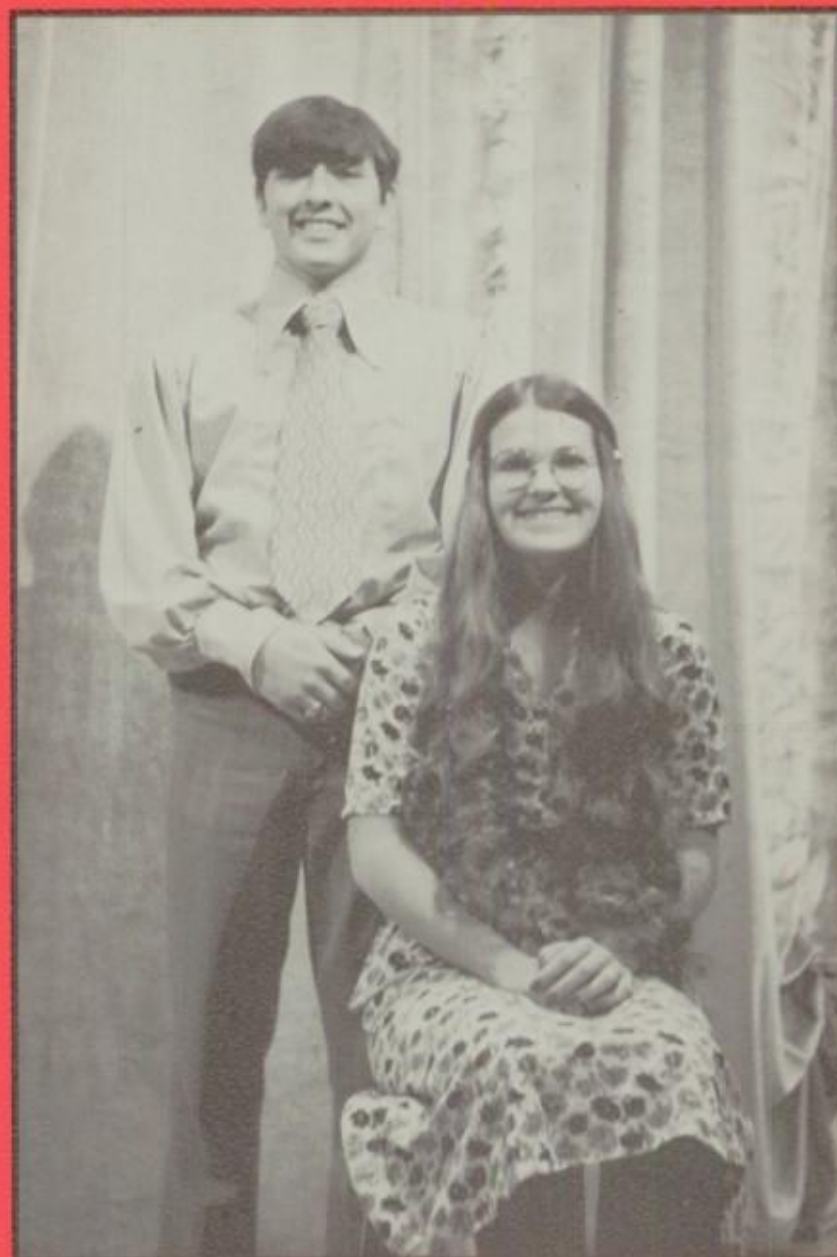

"It's hard to leave E.C. but it has been fun being a part of so great a school."

Boy of the Month for February was Alan Donaho. As a sophomore, he was a member of FCA, the National Thespian Society and was the Vice-President of the Sophomore Class. In his junior year, Alan participated in Student Council and Junior Board. In 1972 he was Student Council Candy Chairman and on the Senior Board. Alan was also active in baseball and football.

Tina Dennis was selected by the student body as Girl of the Month for February. In her senior year, she was a member of the royal court attending Miss East Central VI. Her sophomore year, Tina illustrated her Cardinal loyalty by participating as a Red Cross homeroom representative. Her special interests lie in the area of fashion and sewing.

"I've had a lot of fun at E.C. in the past three years. I've met many new people and have made many new friends."

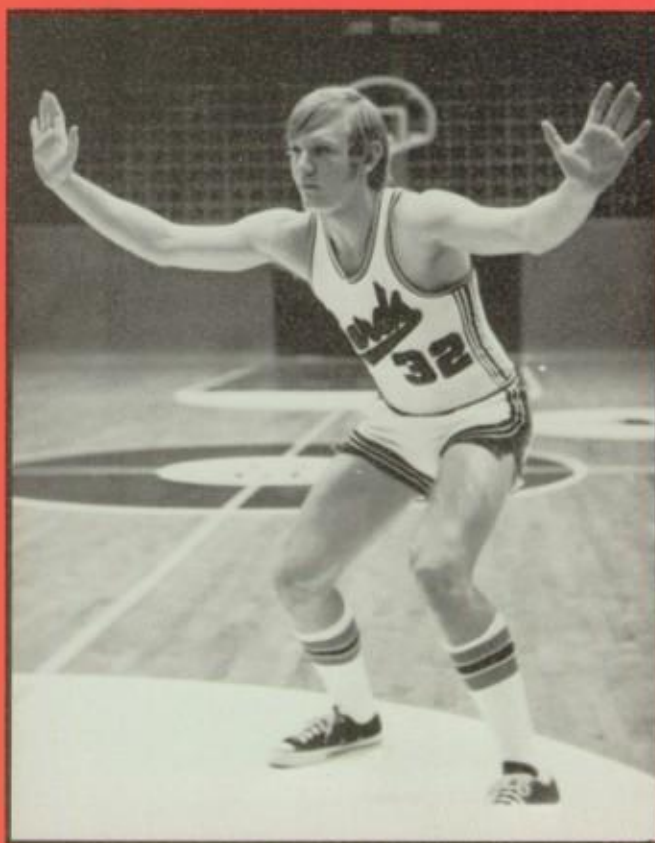

"It was an enjoyable experience that has prepared me for the rest of my life."

March

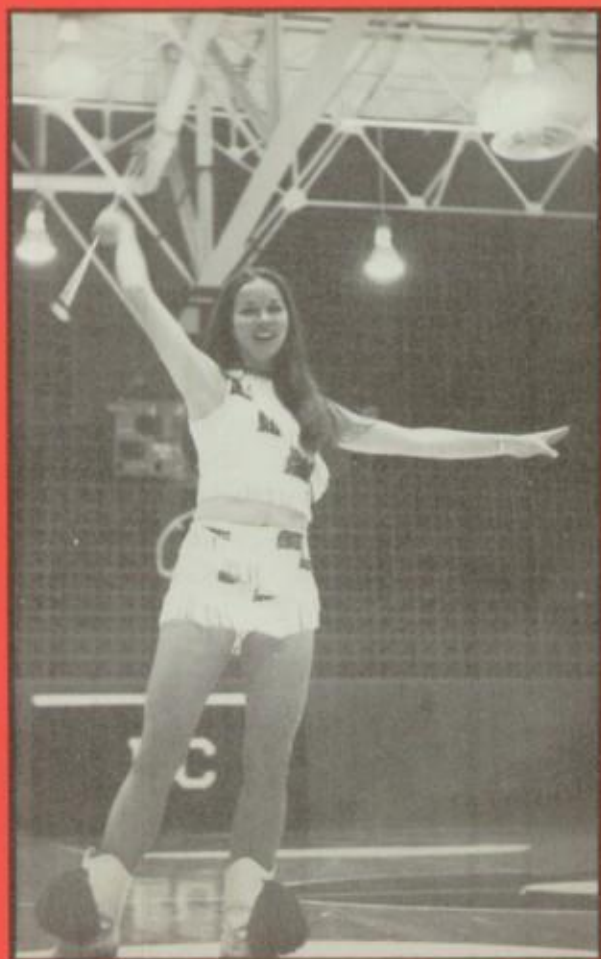

Mike Ferrel was selected as Boy of the Month for March. He demonstrated Cardinal enthusiasm by being an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes throughout his three years at East Central. Mike maintained his membership in the National Honor Society, Junior Civitans, and the Spanish Club during his junior and senior years.

Girl of the Month for March was Jolene Foley. While she has maintained a perfect grade average, Jolene was active in many organizations. She was a three-year member of the marching band, being elected Junior Band Attendant in '71 and the '72 Band Queen. Jolene is an accomplished member of NHS, the Latin Club, and the Student Council.

"I've enjoyed the spirit which E.C. has shown at school sports, because it encourages athletes to try their best for the school and their fellow team-mates."

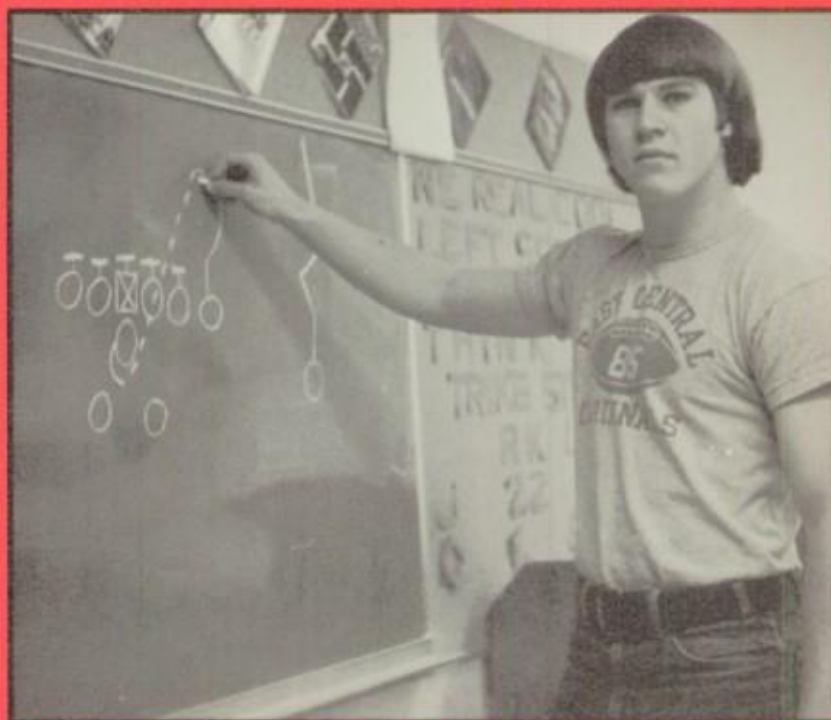

"My years at E.C. were not only a learning experience but a living experience."

The Boy of the Month for April was Ron Spencer. He was a three-year member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, while holding the position of co-cap. of the football team this past year. Ron participated in all-state conference and all-city football competition during the 71-72 season and was named co-player of the year in the Indian Nations.

Cindy Wood was the Girl of the Month for April. Exhibiting her Cardinal spirit she was a three-year member of the Cardinal Pep Club and Future Homemakers of America. During her junior and senior years, Cindy held memberships in Medical Club, Spanish Club, Junior Board, Senior Board, AFS, and Student Council serving as its Corres. Sec.

"Not only have I enjoyed myself, But I also feel I have been well prepared for future experiences."

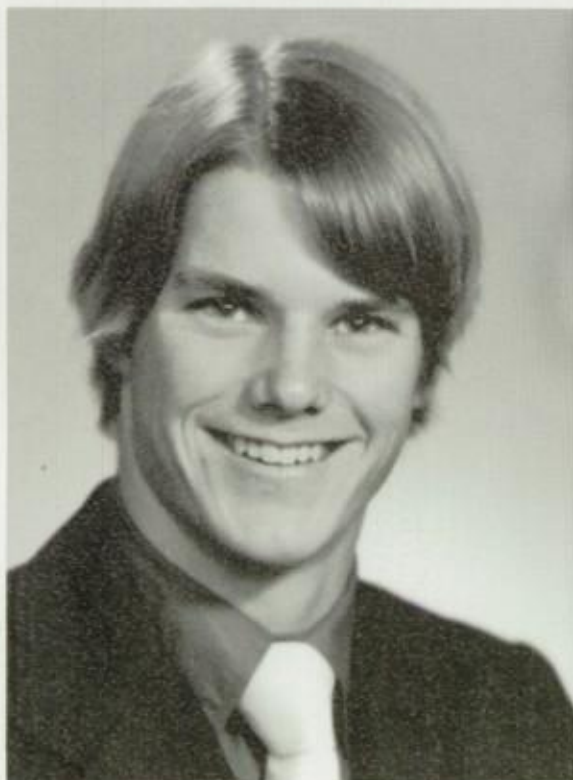

"East Central is the finest high school in Tulsa and I'm glad I had the opportunity to be a part of it."

Introducing

Mr. East Central I: Jim Bennett

Senior Attendant: Jim Elrod

Senior Attendant: John Looney

Mr. East Central I: Jim Bennett

Impact '72, the yearbook theme, was intensified this year with the election of Mr. East Central I: Jim Bennett, and senior attendants Jim Elrod and John Looney. The plans for His Royal Majesty have been in the making for over a year when the idea was first introduced into the Interscholastic Committee last spring. Then the enthusiasm was carried forward by Student Council this year as second semester activities swept through Spirit Week and on into Pride Week, culminating in an all-school election and a new tradition.

IMPACT "72

ACTIONS ...

Did someone ever push your head in a fountain or were you the offender?

It's so tempting.

... REACTIONS

This is where seniors think most sophomores belong.

Spirit comes in all forms. Some feel it in their fingers; these people felt it in their bones. It used to be fun to see how many people could fit in a telephone booth ... times change.

Is "Jesus loves you" a familiar saying?"

Susan never could stand the backseat of a car.

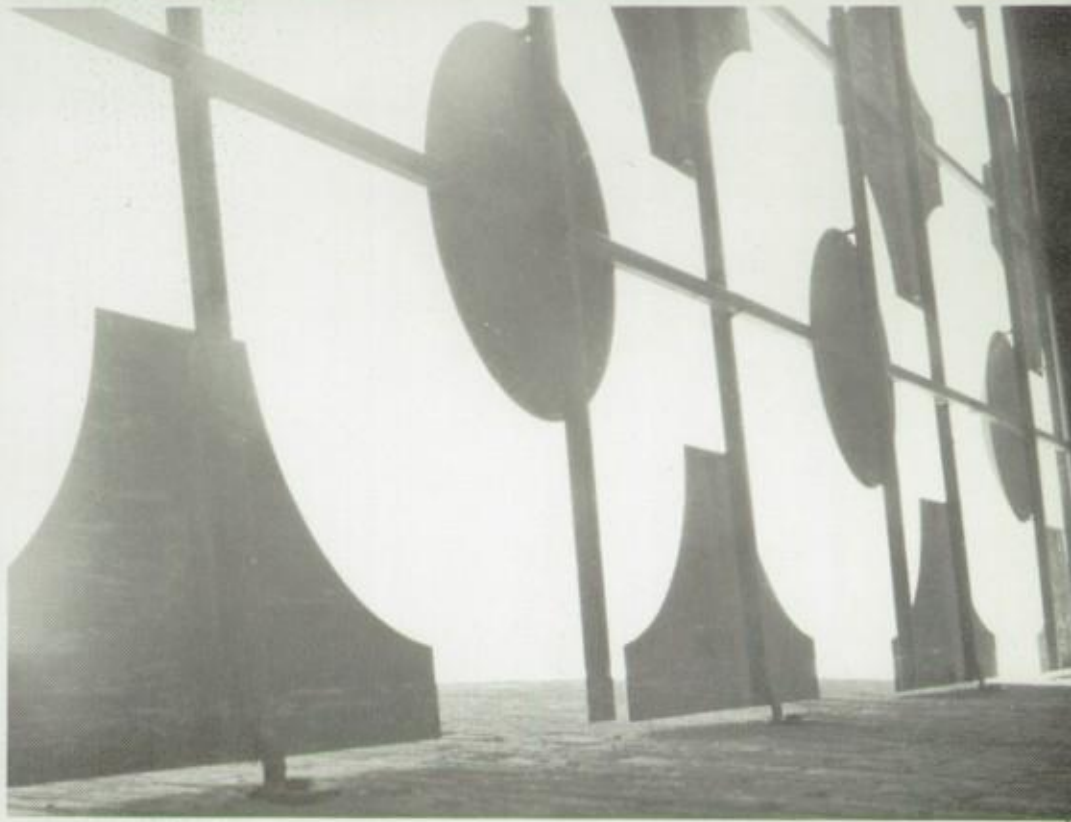

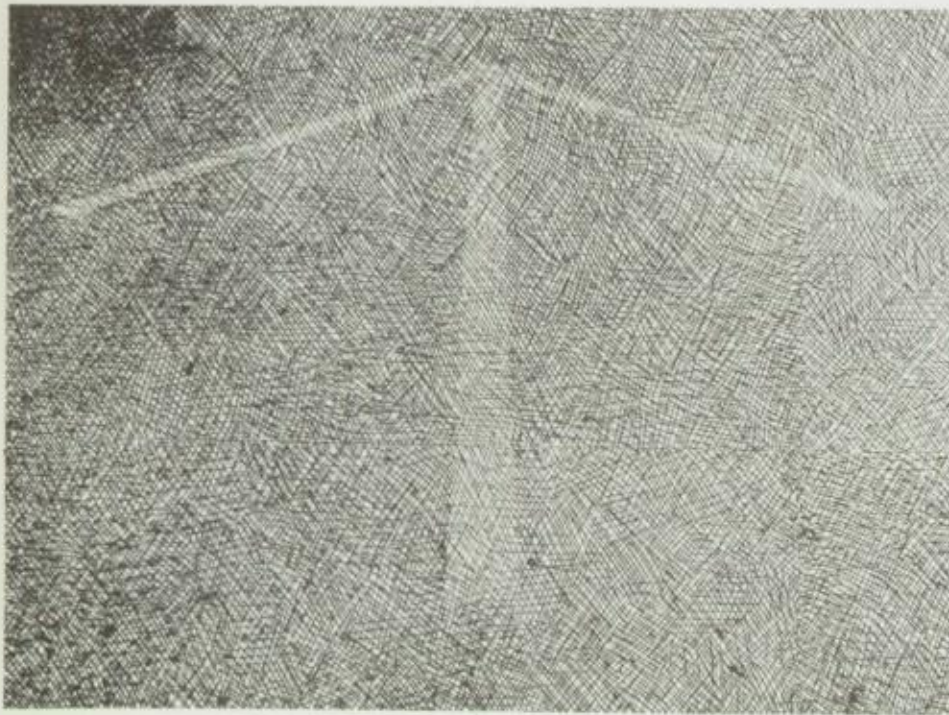

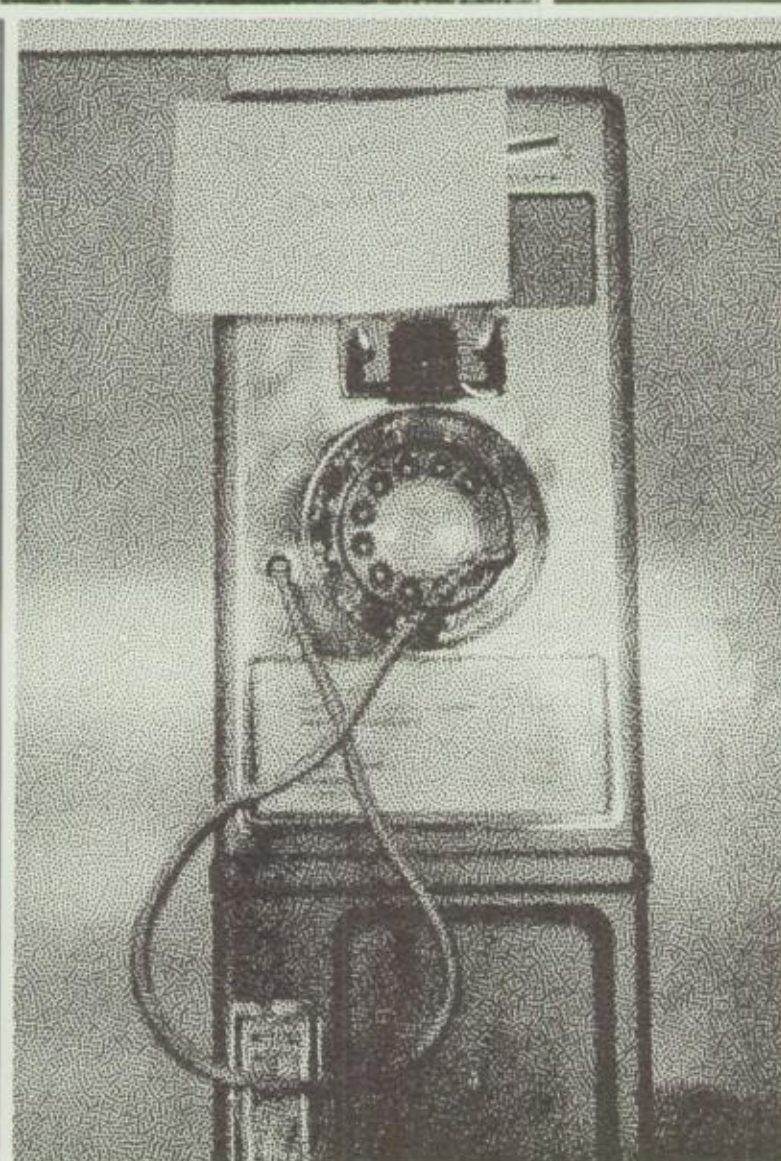

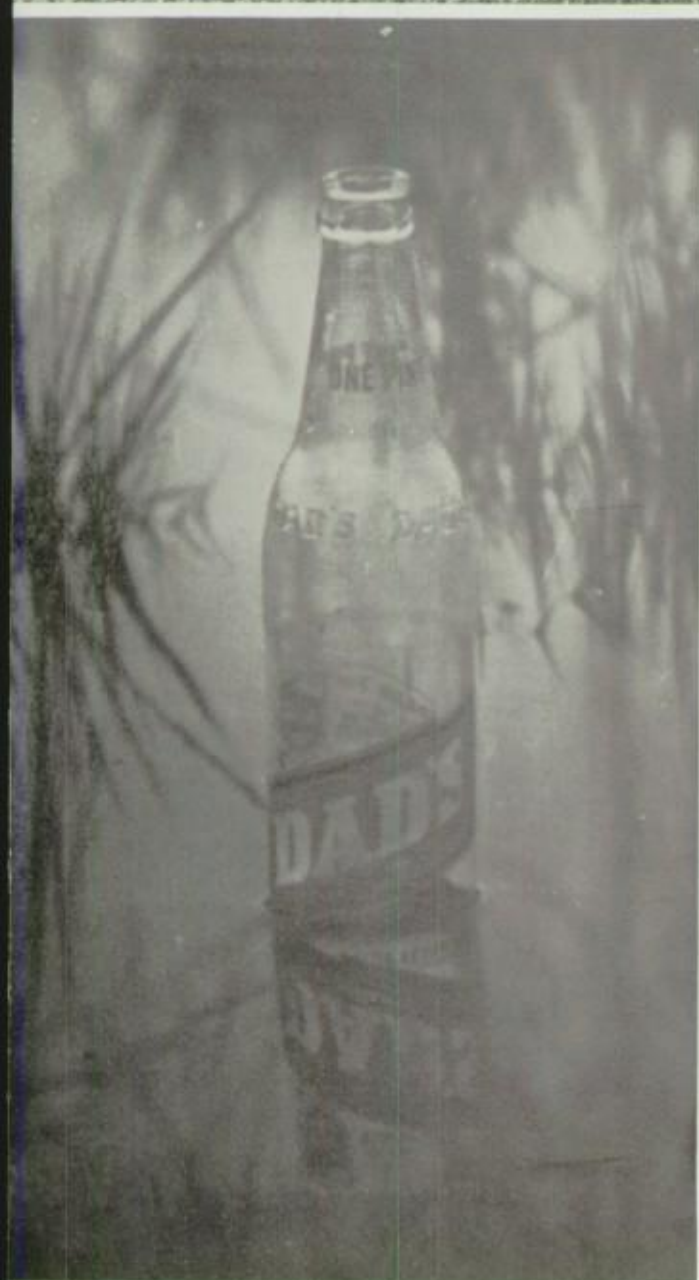

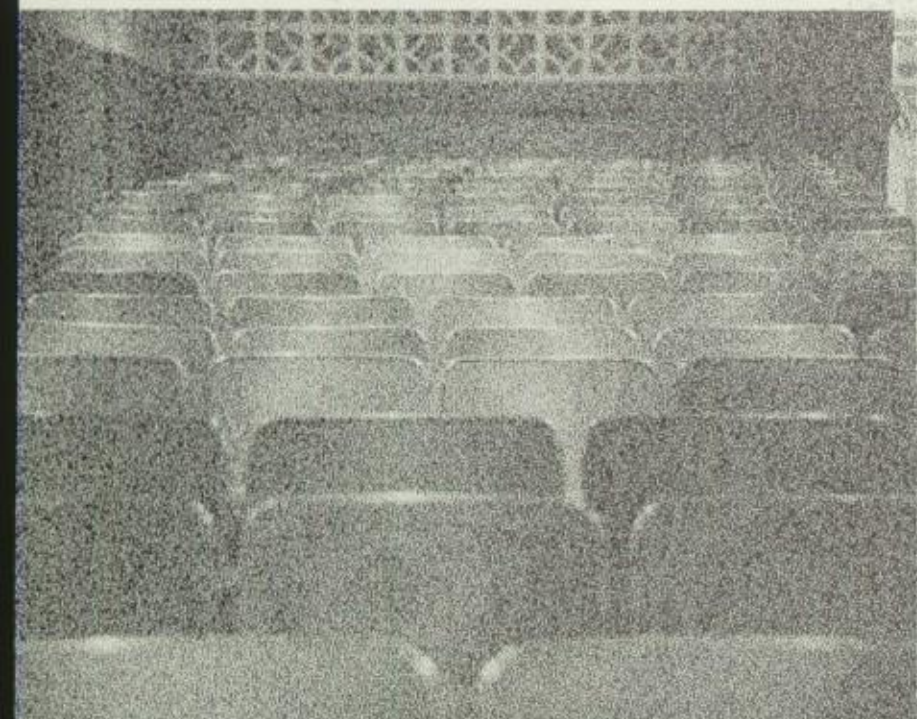

Three's a crowd.

Four is really a mess.

ABSTRACT

Karyl has a smile that is worthwhile and a laugh that's well,...

PEOPLE ...

This is sort of a one-sided situation wouldn't you say.

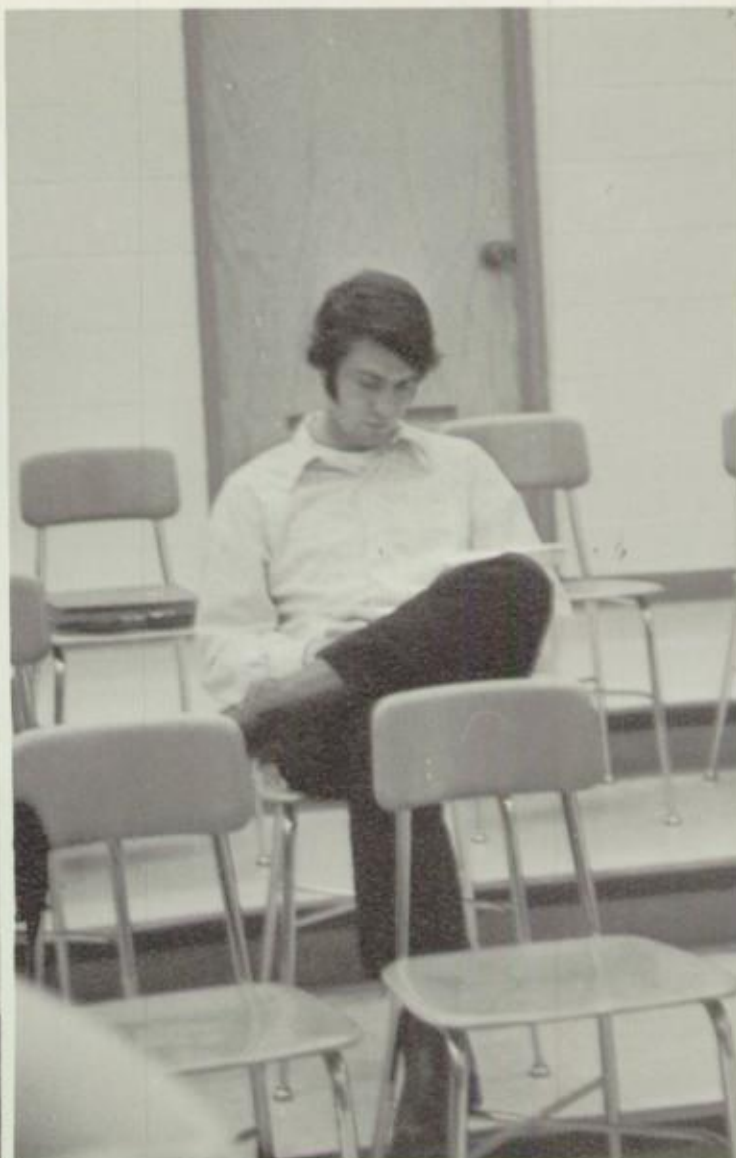

Alright boys, go to your corners.

The domain of Mrs. Lloyd includes the magazine section.

... THINGS

Mr. Snowball Ward's familiar paraphernalia gives former students warm thoughts.

East Central's inresident musician, Terry Spiker.

Recognition of future hippie radicals; Mike Flory, Don Tomiello, Mike Ferrel, Roger Long, Chris Wood, Tom Muckenthaler, Bill Zodrow, Billy Nyquist, Alan Donaho, Rick Parsons, and Mike Sullivan.

Bill Nyquist could wrestle up a physics problem any day.
